DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., Aug. 10.—Three men were killed and six other persons injured here today when an eastern airlines plane on "flight seven," en route from Chicago to Miami, struck a power, or telephone line while taking off from Sholtz airport and crashed to the ground.

The heavy storm of last evening certainly played hobnob with gardens in this vicinity. Many fields of corn were leveled even with the ground as the storm swept across fields at a terrific rate of speed. A great deal of damage was undoubtedly created throughout the vicinity by the storm.

The corn borer don't seem to be causing much trouble in Lawrence county this year, judging from the roasting ears that are coming into market. Few ears have the black ends indicative of the destructive work of the borer.

New Bedford people like to sit on their front porches and see the world go by. This was indicated when a recent proposal to make a cut off from the New Castle-New Bedford road south of the village to a point west of the village was discussed. The proposed road would divert traffic from the town, and the people don't want that. They'd rather dodge automobiles than die of lonesomeness.

Did you register today, Mister Rural Voter?

Or did you do as most of the rural voters have done thus far, neglect it?

Today is the first of two days set aside by the county commissioners during which you can register at your polling place in the township or boro. Tomorrow, Wednesday, August 11 is the last day to register at your polling place. If you fail to register today or tomorrow you still have until September 1 to register in the court house.

Start Work On Dams For Flood Control In Western Pennsylvania

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 10.—More than three decades of civic agitation and clamor were culminated today with the actual start of work on the first two dams of a system of more than a dozen envisaged for Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia as flood control measures.

A telegram from the U. S. army engineers at Washington announcing that the funds were available touched off the beginning of the work. Col. W. E. R. Covell, in charge of the army engineers here at once dispatched two parties of 10 engineers each to Tionesta and Crooked Creek on the Allegheny river system where the first dams will be constructed.

Allocation For Work

An allocation of more than $4,000,000 for dam construction by the army engineers at Washington made possible the start of work.

The engineers sent to Tionesta and Crooked Creek will lay out work for the dam contractors who were expected to begin their construction within the next few weeks. First Lieutenant James K. Herbert was in command of the detail sent to Tionesta and Capt. B. F. Chadwick of the one sent to Crooked Creek.

In addition to laying out the work, they will set up temporary headquarters for the construction heads.

The U. S. engineers here have been prepared to start the work for many months. All that was needed was the order to "go ahead."

Document Signed

President Roosevelt on Saturday signed the necessary documents allocating to this district $3,750,000 of the $30,000,000 voted this session by congress for flood control. In addition to this amount, Colonel Covell has available some $265,000 in relief funds.

The engineers are now awaiting a right of way order from the State Department of Forests and Waters before the heavy, actual construction work begins. The state, it was understood, has already made arrangements to pay the necessary property damages for land taken for construction of the two dams. This is being done under newly enacted state and federal legislation.

Next Construction At Red Bank

At the same time, it was indicated that the next construction undertaken will be at Red Bank. Colonel Covell simultaneously dispatched 60 engineers to Red Bank to begin designing a reservoir there to be constructed after Crooked Creek and Tionesta.

Agitation for the dams began more than 30 years ago and has

Decides Not To Attend Dinner For Barkley, In Washington

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—President Roosevelt, back from a rather unharmonious stay at Hyde Park, decided today not to attend a senate "harmony" dinner tonight in honor of the newly elected Majority Leader Alben Barkley of Kentucky.

The executive will send a letter to Vice President Garner, who will preside, in lieu of his presence.

It was understood the message would be one of greeting which will carefully avoid any of the controversial subjects still pending before congress.

Turner Home Is Hit By Lightning

North Hill Residence Struck By Bolt During Electric Storm Last Evening

HEAVY RAINS ARE NOTICED

During the heavy electric storm which swept the city around 6 o'clock last evening, the home of Alfred R. Turner at 435 Boyles avenue, was struck by a bolt of lightning, which hit the gable of the house, ripped a hole in the roof after tearing off a large quantity of slate, and knocked considerable plaster off the walls at the attic stairway. The damage was around $100.

City firemen were summoned to the home, but no fire followed and their services were not needed.

New Castle and the surrounding community was drenched by the rains which accompanied the storm, a total of 1.53 inches of precipitation being recorded.

The city proper missed the greater part of a storm which passed around from the west to the northeast late in the afternoon, but two other storms followed closely on the heels of this one, and an electrical bombardment resulted which lasted intermittently for more than an hour, and a near cloudburst was noted.

Horst Boy Is Back At 'Home'

Returned To Home From Which He Was Kidnaped Week Ago

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—Little concerned in the furore raging around his head, Donald Horst played at home again today for the first time since his "kidnaping" stirred a strange fight for his custody a week ago.

"Home" to the 2½ year old boy is the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Horst, who took him as their own son shortly after he was born out of wedlock to Lydia Nelson Lavin.

Climaxing her abduction of the child and ensuing dispute over him, the Horsts yesterday were awarded temporary custody pending an investigation and final decision by County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki.

In a dramatic courtroom scene, the judge refused to let the Horsts adopt the boy outright until he is satisfied they will be fit parents. Visibly moved by Mrs. Horst's tearful reunion with Donald the judge nevertheless said it was impossible to make an irrevocable decision until he had gone into the case more thoroughly.

Dollar Day Will Occur Wednesday

Forty-eight of New Castle's leading merchants are today putting the finishing touches on store decorations and arranging special merchandise which will go on sale tomorrow at the semi-annual Dollar Day, sponsored by the Retail Merchants Association.

Plans for the event have been under way for several weeks, and as usual, the city's leading merchants can be depended upon to have some choice offerings for the thrifty buyers of the district, for they have been preparing for this occasion with extra care.

For two days now special advertising pages have been devoted to the various offerings of these enterprising merchants, and folks in the New Castle district will do well to scan these pages this evening and also in Monday's issue of The News, for they contain some choice offerings of merchandise which are marked far below the regular selling price.

Dollar Day has been observed semi-annually by the merchants of the city for a great number of years and is a time-established institution which is eagerly looked forward to by thrifty shoppers, who know that they can be assured of exceptional bargains in merchandise on these occasions.

Folks taking a late vacation can find just what they want for their wardrobe at prices far below those which prevailed earlier in the summer. But in addition to this, there will be specials offered by many merchants in advance of the fall season, and many staple commodities will be found lower than they generally sell for.

So fill the old pocketbook with the stuff it takes tomorrow, and join the army of thrifty shoppers who will be downtown early, remembering that the early bird gets the choice tidbits and those who lag behind will have to take what is left.

Wisconsin Youth Is Held For Death Of His Sweetheart

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

APPLETON, Wis., Aug. 10.—An ex-college boy and scion of a well-to-do Wisconsin farm family was held here today for the fatal stabbing of his sweetheart at a country dance hall.

Shortly after his arrest, police announced that Glenn Barker, 24, a former student at the University of Wisconsin, had admitted he had killed the girl in a jealous rage.

The victim of the attack, Helen Wellhouse, 18, died Sunday night shortly after she had been stabbed in the neck while dancing with Barker on the crowded floor in a country hall.

Fortified by blackberry brandy Barker went to the dance to get even with Helen for giving her picture to another youth, police quoted him as saying.

Report Confession

According to his confession as announced by authorities, he said:

"We started out to dance. I opened my pocket knife while I had my left arm around her shoulders. I pulled out the knife and stuck it in her neck. All she said was "don't". Then she fell to the floor and I ran."

In the ensuing confusion, Barker escaped and fled home. He told his father, George Barker, owner of a large farm once owned by Hart P. Danks, composer of "Silver Threads Among the Gold" near Ellington

Killing Of Two Japanese At Shanghai May Have Serious Consequences

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

SHANGHAI, Aug. 10.—With streets jammed by countless terrified, jabbering natives rushing to sanctuary in the international settlement, this city of 3,500,000 today was in a state of veritable mass-panic.

Stiff Japanese demands, with war as the alternative, will result from the death of a Japanese naval officer and marine at Hungjao airdrome, West of here, it was feared.

Construct Trenches

Chinese troops were frantically engaged in constructing trenches and erecting sand-bag baricades in the neighborhood of the airport evidently dreading a Japanese attack there.

Local authorities ceremoniously handed over the bodies of the slain men, Lieut. Isao Ohyama and Seaman Yozo Saito, to Japanese naval officials, but the Chinese vigorously adhered to their statement that the two were shot after they had fired at airport guards. One Chinese soldier was killed in the clash.

China Threatened

Tokyo, Aug. 10—China, bitterly accused by officialdom and the press for yesterday's killing of two Japanese at Shanghai's airport today was threatened with a 'good whipping."

Four Of Dionnes Have Slight Colds

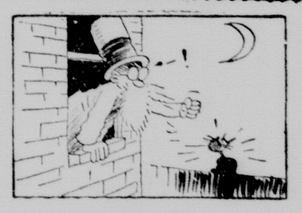

(International News Service)

CALLANDER, Ont., Aug. 10.—Within the guarded seclusion of their model hospital, four of the Dionne quintuplets were ill with slight colds today while the fifth, Emilie, herself recently recovered from a respiratory infection, made gallant attempts to assist the attending nurses in their duties.

Outdoor play periods of the quins have been suspended and the famous children will not be on public view for several days by order of Dr. Allan Roy Dafoe. However, no anxiety is felt.

Emilie's recent throat infection was blamed on an "outside source". She had barely recovered when her sister, Annette, Marie, Cecile and Yvonne, came down with colds when caught in a sudden rain while playing in the yard.

PRESIDENT ISSUES DENIAL

Not Taking Part In Mayor Battle

Repercussions Follow Visit Of Flynn To Hyde Park Over Week-End

ROOSEVELT RETURNS TO WASHINGTON

By GEORGE DURNO
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, D. C. Aug. 10—President Roosevelt returned to Washington this morning, following a week-end at Hyde Park, to see congress through to adjournment.

Tonight, Democrats of the Senate are honoring newly-elected majority leader Alben Barkley, of Kentucky, with a "harmony dinner." Mr. Roosevelt had made no final statement about attending, but it was anticipated he would send a message.

Repercusions

Repercussions of the New York City mayoralty campaign accompanied the president back to Washington. Disturbed by stories that the presence Sunday in Hyde Park of Edward J. Flynn, Bronx Democratic leader, inferred the white house was supporting Jeremiah T. Mahoney against Senator Royal S. Copeland, a new deal opponent, Mr. Roosevelt had his secretary, Marvin H. McIntyre, issue a statement of denial.

The McIntyre statement declared Flynn's visit to the Hudson river estate was "wholly social." On Sunday, the president and Flynn discussed "no political subject," it was added.

Mr. Roosevelt caused the statement to be issued after Copeland delivered a broadside against the white house for interfering in New York politics, basing his attack on the president on newspaper stories emanating from Hyde Park about the Flynn visit.

Not Taking Part

"The president repeated today for the thousandth time" said the McIntyre communique, "that he has not taken part, is not taking part and will not take part in any local primary election except in his home town and home county."

As the president boarded his train last night at Hyde Park, he told a small group of assembled town folk he would "be back in five days after adjournment of congress."

It was understood the executive would spend nearly a month at his family home.

Before midnight last night, the president acted on the $130,000,000 interior department appropriation bill, but it was not announced whether he signed or vetoed it. Reclamation projects, termed "pork barrel" additions to the money bill in some quarters, raised a question wether the president would permit it to become law. Formal announcement in the matter was awaited today.

Another measure before the president was the District of Columbia tax bill. It carries the Miller-Tydings price-maintenance bill as a rider. Some months ago, Mr. Roosevelt wrote a letter suggesting the Miller-Tydings bill should be studied closely to determine whether it might not aid price-fixing monopolies.

taken on added momentum in recent years through organization of the Tri-State Authority and the U. S. Flood Control Federation. The first of the series of dams is now under construction by the federal government at Gygart, W. Va.

U. S. engineers here urged persons seeking employment at the dams to get in touch with the contractors to whom the work has been awarded and not the U. S. engineers. They explained the private contractors will be charged with hiring the necessary workmen.

Except for common labor, employment given through the engineers will be in accordance with civil service regulations, it was explained.

The commonwealth, through the Department of Forests and Waters, will be in charge of relocation of highways and railways where necessary, according to the engineers.

were not yet sure of the identification.

Others Aboard Plane

Other persons aboard the plane were:

E. W. Philpotts, son of J. F. Philpotts.

W. G. Marian of Mexico City.

C. W. Dunlap, address unknown.

F. M. Thompson of Greenville, S. C.

A man believed to be H. M. Hamilton of Detroit, who was reportedly en route to Cristobal.

Flight steward Merrill, whose first name was not available.

All but the younger Philpotts, who was thrown clear of the wreckage, were reported to be in a serious condition.

Was Taking Off

There was confusion regarding the exact spelling of the Philpotts name. One record gave the name of the elder man as J. F. Philpotts, while another gave it as J. A. Philpot.

The plane had just discharged mail at Sholtz airport and was taking off toward the south when it crashed into the line which apparently had just been erected, on the opposite side of the road.

Witnesses said Capt. Dietz made a brilliant effort to right the plane, but it struck the ground in a scrub palmetto field and then bounced into a clump of trees.

The motors were torn from the plane and bounced about twenty yards away. Both motors caught fire, but the flames did not spread to the wreckage of the plane.

Airline Report

New York, Aug. 10.—One passenger and two pilots of an Eastern Airlines passenger plane were killed and five passengers were injured seriously today when the giant ship crashed while taking off from Sholtz airport in Daytona Beach, Fla., Eastern Airlines officials announced here.

The dead were: Capt. Stewart G. Dietz, of Baltimore; co-pilot Robert Reed, and Peter Philpot, a passenger.

The injured passengers were rushed to a Daytona Beach hospital all in serious condition. Their names were not immediately available here.

WISCONSIN YOUTH IS HELD FOR DEATH OF HIS SWEETHEART

Wis. The father advised his son to surrender and drove him to the police station, but when the youth found the girl was dead he leaped out of the car and vanished in the darkness.

"There's no use of my living any longer," he cried to his father when told Helen had died."

Got "Cold Feet"

Intending to end his own life, Barker said he had tried to drown himself in the Fox river but swam to shore when he got "cold feet." He wandered around the rest of the night and most of yesterday, he said, at last decided to come to town last evening. There he was recognized by Patrolman Clarence Hoppe from a newspaper picture.

At the station police said he impassively admitted the killing and related the circumstances in detail. He had been driven to a frenzy, he said, because Helen demanded he return her picture so that she might give it to another youth.

Young Barker said he had gone to the dance alone, but knew that Helen would also be present. He danced several times with her, he said:

"We had the last dance just before the intermission," he was quoted as saying. "We were dancing cheek to cheek. She was a beautiful dancer. She could follow anything, and for a while I forgot I was mad at her. But the thought that she was loving someone else more than me and that I was losing her, drove me crazy I guess. The music stopped and we started to walk off the floor. I still had my left arm around her. I reached in my pocket with my right hand and opened my knife. I jerked it out and in the same motion stuck it in her throat....."

State's Attorney Raymond P. Dohr and Sheriff John Lappan said the youth would be held on a first degree murder charge.

Anglo-German Journalistic War Threatens

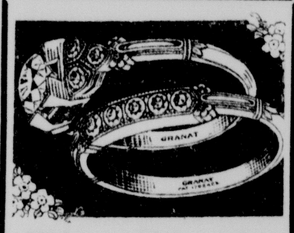

(International News Service)

LONDON, Aug. 10—Danger of an Anglo-German journalistic war loomed today when Britain threatened to expel more German newspaper men if Berlin carries out its insistence that Norman Ebbut, Berlin correspondent of the Times of London, leave the Reich.

The Times meanwhile bluntly announced that it was not willing to substitute another correspondent for Ebbut under the conditions asked by Germany. The Reich sought a writer who would "pay less attention to what the German government considers trivial, and more attention to constructive reporting."

Officials here also threatened to "expose" the real reason for expulsion of Werner Von Crome and Franz Otto Wrede, correspondents for the Berlin Lokal-Anzeiger, and Wolf Dietrich Langen of a German news agency.

Their removal was made the subject of formal representations to the foreign office by Dr. Ernst Woermann, German charge d' affaires.

self-restraint are being met by bad faith on China's part."

The war minister's words were backed up by Vice-Admiral Mitsumasa Yonai, the navy minister, who told the cabinet that he regarded the airport killings "seriously."

Adequate Measures

Adequate measures, he stressed, are being taken by Japanese military and haval authorities to prevent any repetition, and to "deal with any situation which may arise from the incident."

Japanese members of an investigating committee contended that the pair were motoring along the airport boundary when they were attacked without provocation.

The fact that the committee was composed of Japanese and Chinese prevented any official agreement on the clash.

Peiping meanwhile was returning to normal after the excitement of its occupation by 3000 Japanese.

The city, however, remains cut off from the outside world as far as commercial telegraphs and radio are concerned. General Torashino Kawabe set up his headquaters in the Chinese section of Peiping, leaving the diplomatic area in control of American and other foreign troops.

Police formally issued orders against the teaching in schools of the famous "three principles" of the late Dr. Sun Yat-Sen, first president of the Chinese republic, one of which opposed Japan.

In spite of tension in Peiping, the faculty at the American University of Yenching today began examining 700 entrance applicants.

SMUGGLING ON THE WANE?

WITH arrests during the last fiscal year for making or passing bogus bills or coins totaling only 1247, a decrease of 339 in twelve months, the treasury finds counterfeiting and smuggling definitely on the decline, although check forgery is reported gaining.

The Customs Bureau listed only 9800 seizures of smuggled goods, compared with 13,856 in the previous period, giving the impression that persons who try to sneak valuables into this country without paying duty are becoming more clever or else more scarce. Uncle Sam likes to believe the latter. It is possible, too, that the making and passing of counterfeit money is being done more expertly.

It continues amazing that many consider smuggling more adventurous than culpable. This is a crime that involves cheating, lying, often bribery and conspiracy, yet even prominent persons are occasionally caught at it without noticeable loss of public esteem. Counterfeiting is considerably lower in the moral scale, as weighed by public opinion.

However, that impulse to pass on to somebody else a bad bill unwarily acquired is well-nigh universal. Only the fact that one person in a hundred can detect the falsity of a note, it is feared, keeps these treasury lists of criminals low.

"LIBERAL" EDUCATION

Before sailing for Europe on a summer vacation, President R. M. Hutchins of the University of Chicago called in newspapermen and announced that he had accepted appointment to the board of governors of St. John's college at Annapolis, Md., in order to assist in "a revival of the ancient purposes of education." He said: "St. John's will be an attempt to prepare the student for life, rather than for the purpose of earning a living."

The statement sounds as if it were an excerpt from the pat generalities of a commencement address, but Dr. Hutchins, who became head of Chicago at 30, is never one to deal in orthodox commonplaces. And if there is to be another educational experiment, it might as well be at St. John's as elsewhere, for the small but historic college, founded in 1696, has had rather rough going of late, with a succession of presidents, administrative difficulties and much student unrest. Dr. Hutchins thinks that perhaps an answer has been found, not for St. John's alone, but for liberal education elsewhere in the United States.

He is critical of educators for "failure to provide a fundamental educational training." He has no use for "teaching tricks of trade in colleges." He thinks "schools of journalism are terrible," and law schools almost as bad; that the "professional and vocational interests of students" overwhelm most colleges. Furthermore, all colleges are under terrific pressure to adopt a uniform curriculum. In short, teaching of the liberal arts in the United States is in a parlous fix.

In Dr. Hutchins's criticism that the curriculum of most colleges is neither one thing nor the other, neither liberal nor vocational, there is doubtless a great deal of truth. There is also the practice of cutting the curriculum to fit the prospective student's cloth, as, for example, dropping the requirement of Greek for a bachelor of arts degree in some of our most conservative universities because some applicants were unable or unwilling to offer it for admission.

Thus the acquisition of a "liberal" education becomes a rather pleasant process, without too much intellectual discipline. With changing specifications and requirements, the degrees thus earned represent no fixed form of achievement. It will be interesting to watch whether Dr. Hutchins and his friends at St. John's also intend "to prepare the student for life" without putting him to undue mental exertion.

THE GIRLS CAN HELP

"Two young men and a girl, aged 17 to 19, were killed instantly late last night returning from a dance, when their car crashed into a tree at a high rate of speed. The fourth member of the party is in a critical condition in a local hospital."

This news-item, differing only in minor details, has appeared a thousand times, and in papers in every state of the union. It reflects one of the most tragic phases of the automobile accident problem—the reckless drivers in their teens and early twenties. Out for a good time, they careen about the highways and by-ways—and at regular intervals death follows in their tracks. Immature minds regard it as an act of enviable bravado to "see what the old bus will do." In some cases the cars they drive should have been sent to the junk pile long ago—brakes are gone, lights are bad, steering mechanisms are faulty, and tires are down to the fabrics, ready for blowouts.

The larger part of the blame for accidents that kill and maim young people must be put squarely on the shoulders of their parents. The fathers and mothers who permit their children to endanger their lives with reckless driving, or are too lazy to find out the true state of affairs, are, to put it kindly, derelict in duty. Even worse are the parents who, when their children are arrested for dangerous driving practices, move heaven and earth to have them freed without punishment—thus, in effect, telling them to go out and do it again.

But youth itself, in the form of the young girls who go riding with their boy friends, can be of the greatest assistance in reducing this toll by bestowing a bit of praise and showing admiration for the safe driver and simply refusing to ride with the reckless one—make safe driving the price of a date and watch said boy friend slow down.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

HOW PARENT IS TRAINED

One hot Sunday last June, I conducted a forum on "Education for Marriage and Parenthood" at the Arch Street Methodist church of Philadelphia, under the auspices of the Youth council of the churches of that city.

Among my few opening remarks preceding the discussion by the audience were these:

"We begin to educate the child for wholesome marriage and parenthood when he is born. Indeed, we begin much earlier. Long before his birth, even before his conception, those who are to become his parents, if happy family life is their first consideration, plan together for this child, and acquire similar ideals about him and his upbringing. And this child is born to parents who have learned to love each other intelligently; to get along together, happily, companionably, and to grow in fellowship and mutuality. The way his parents get along together and cooperate in his guidance as he grows up will have most to do in preparing him by and by for wholesome, happy marriage and parenthood. The degree of marital happiness and success in parenthood goes on and on from generation to generation . . .

"Our children are creatures of emotions. Always their education is modified by their emotions and our own. It's the family atmosphere they breathe all the time, without thinking about it, that is many, many times more influential than our conscious efforts at their training which they are aware of. Then I noted some items we shall emphasize in the education of our children for wholesome marriage and parenthood:

Parent-Parent Relation.

I. Wholesome parent-parent adjustments, involving (a) sportsmanship in each toward other; (b) observance by each toward other of the nice amenities of earlier sweetheart days; (c) each with very high regard for the sacredness of personality in other; (d) poise, serenity and self-control in each parent; (e) both having and acquiring similar interests outside themselves, for leisure hours.

II. Establishment of early adequate control of child by his parents who properly balance restraint of child with affection, understanding, reason.

III. Learning by child to get along with others of his age.

IV. Wholesome sex education at home.

V. Learning early to think objectively about the qualities desirable in a marital companion. There were many contributions from the audience. One person wanted to know what advice could be given to those couples already in love. Another suggested that with standards set so high, many young people would give up in despair.

It seems to me that this is a subject that more ministers should be thinking about and preaching about. Also a subject worthy of discussion by adolescent groups and adult groups in Sunday schools. And why should not more classes in high school and college be reading and thinking together on these matters? I have written at length on this subject in my book, "The Modern Family".

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

A BIRD PANIC

Last night an owl came to a tree
Reserved for robins and for wrens;
And sat there very placidly,
Each eye of his glistening lens;
No move he made; no hoot or cry
Escaped his thickly feathered throat
And yet the first bird passing by
Sounded aloud a warning note.

Here was an enemy to fear!
Here was a pirate come to shore!
Here was a cruel buccaneer!
From nest to nest, as door to door
In ancient days the word was passed
The messenger of danger flew.
The song birds scurried out aghast
As panic stricken humans do.

I wondered what 'twas all about
So suddenly the tumult rose
So swiftly came the fearful rout
Of peace and safety and repose.
"Perhaps," thought I, "some neighbor's cat.
Tonight is on a hunting prowl."
I went to see, and there he sat!
A solitary fledging owl!

Scarce old enough to kill was he,
Scarce old enough to strike or claw,
But still an owl, and born to be
Hated by nature's ancient law.
"Where'er you come to rest," thought I,
"No other bird in peace will stay.
You're doomed to be, until you die,
A solitary bird of prey."

Well, that did not peeve the printer so that he went home and whipped his wife, but what did get under his cuticle was the letter's last paragraph. The doctor insisted that the forms should be left standing indefinitely so that if at some future time he wanted another batch run off he would be saved the setting up expense. The printer said when he cooled off enough so that the paper he used didn't sizzle, he replied as follows: "I am in receipt of your letter and I guess by a little swapping you and I can do business. I am in the market and will receive bids on one operation for appendicitis and please quote one, two and five inch incisions with and without nurse. Senators Want To Stay In Session.
Farm Bill Settlement Is Sought.
Bumper Crops May Mean Lower Prices.

By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Columnist

THE FARM PROBLEM suddenly becomes the most serious economic problem of the nation—for everybody. Congress, now that it has killed the supreme court bill and blocked New Deal measures, finds that it does not desire to go home. Forty-one senators presented a memorial for congress to remain in session to enact farm legislation.

Why the sudden about-face?

Crops are too large! A subsidy is needed to "protect" the farmer against price collapses. Hundreds of millions of dollars are needed.

Cotton is the chief crop involved. Thus we see the cotton senators, who recently insisted upon going home, now insisting upon remaining in Washington.

But Majority Leader Alben W. Barkley in the senate and Speaker Bankhead in the house held the onrushing legislators in check by saying that the only legislation the president would have before congress when it reconvenes, in January, would be a farm bill. In the meantime, pressure will be intense for commodity loans without waiting for a crop control bill.

* * *

BUT WHAT?

But can a "legal" bill — in the opinion of the U. S. supreme court —be formulated?

The president insists upon an AAA—which the supreme court invalidated.

He refuses to consent to commodity loans — which the cotton senators desire — unless there also is crop control. Otherwise, he believes, as do many other persons, the government would be pouring money into a bottomless pit. (As Herbert Hoover's administration learned.)

* * *

LOWER PRICES

Bumper crops mean that lower prices are inevitable—unless an European war causes an artificial demand. Artificial demands, however, are followed by complete collapse.

Lower prices will benefit the nation as a whole, the Alexander Hamilton Institute points out. "But the farmers' income will not suffer, since a larger volume will offset lower prices."

Try to tell that, however, to the farmers and the cotton and grain senators and representatives.

Yet, somewhere, somehow, the price rise will have to stop.

* * *

FARMERS' FRIEND

The new farm crisis — if large crops can be termed a "crisis" — brings to the force once more Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace. Does that mean he may become the "obvious" man for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1940?

Wallace is a liberal, even if he once was a Republican. His father was a secretary of agriculture in a Republican cabinet.

Wallace is looked upon with a great deal of favor in both liberal and conservative farm regions. A farmer is for anybody who helps him, just as a worker is for anybody who helps workers, and bankers for anybody who helps bankers.

* * *

COURAGE

President Roosevelt exhibited considerable courage in refusing to countenance commodity loans without crop restriction.

He could have "traded" other things he desired for those loans with some of the senators who have been attacking him. He did not.

* * *

VANDENBERG

Nearly everyone takes for granted that Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan will be the Republican presidential nominee in 1940. He is the chief outspoken opponent of President Roosevelt at the moment.

But the rise of the farm issue again is not so good for Vandenberg, some of the agricultural Republicans say. Vandenberg has fought too many New Deal relief measures to fit in with the agriculturist's idea of more "aid".

Vandenberg also has another problem. Michigan has become a highly organized labor state. As popular as he has been (although his last election, in 1934, was not a walkover), he may find an uprising against him in the industrial centers of his own state.

Jim Farley, nevertheless, is betting that Vandenberg will be the G. O. P. presidential nominee. He seems to know more concerning that than he does concerning the probable nominee in his own party.

But it seems too early to guess for either party. Conditions are changing rapidly. When a senate insists upon going home one day and refuses to go home the following day, one can realize that nothing is predictable.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

FRIENDLY SUGGESTIONS

You may be fresh as a daisy at the start of your long vacation trip, but unless you can relax while driving or riding you'll probably be "worn to a frazzle" at the finish of each day's jaunt.

The secret of successful long-distance motor touring may be found in the following tips suggested by the U. S. Public Health Service.

1. Don't slump in the seat. It causes back-aches.

2. Don't grip the wheel too tightly or hold the body tense. This produces nerve strain and may make the driver falter when quick action is required. Be attentive yet relaxed while driving.

3. Avoid eye-strain. Don't stare ahead. Bear your head in easy positions restful to the eyes. In other words, keep your chin up.

4. Stop and rest, at intervals. Fatigue is dangerous. Maintain a steady driving pace; avoid spurts or driving steadily at high speed.

Other bits of advice offered are to drive slowly over rough roads and relax when taking bumps, keep foot pedals within easy reach, and eat sparingly while touring, particularly, in hot weather. Fruit juices and plenty of water, cool but not ice cold are beneficial. Hot tea is especially refreshing.

And keep in mind that you are out to enjoy the trip and not to establish endurance or distance records or to risk your neck or fray your nerves by driving too far or too long in one day.

TODAY Is The Day

TUESDAY, AUG. 10.

Aug. 10 In History—Ferdinand Magellan, a cripple discharged from the service of the king of his native Portugal as useless, sailed on Aug. 10, 1519, from Seville, Spain, with a company of 270 in five ships which had been declared unseaworthy.

A few weeks before, a spy of Manuel of Portugal, described Magellan's ships in a report as his master as "very old and patched up; for I saw them when they beached for repairs....I went on board them a few times and I assure your highness I should be ill-inclined to sail in them to the Canaries."

Magellan's destination was the Spice Islands, East Indies, but when the only survivors of the expedition returned—31 men in the ship Vitterie—they had completed the first voyage around the Earth. Though Magellan died before the circumnavigation was completed, to him belongs the credit for succeeding where Columbus had failed—in linking western Europe with eastern Asia by direct transmit over the Western Ocean.

Exactly 271 years later, the schooner Columbia, attended by the sloop Washington, was back in Boston after completing the first voyage around the world under the American flag. Of far more importance than her circumnavigation of the Earth was the cargo and news she brought back. They made her arrival one of the most significant events in our history.

For on the trip Capt. Robert L. Gray opened up western commerce with China and established the great days of New England—and U. S.—commerce and industry. The Columbia and those who came after, sailed to the Pacific Coast, traded trinkets, guns, cloth and rum to the Amerindians for furs, crossed the ocean, bartered the furs in China for silks, spices, chinaware and tea which brought fancy prices in Europe and America. A profit of $50,000 per voyage of a ship in the China trade was not unusual, and for years American ships had a virtual monopoly of the commerce.

Police Here Record Nearly Four Hundred Fingerprints In Year

Washington Gives Report Of Number Filed From New Castle And County

(Special To The News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 10.—Three hundred and ninety-six criminal fingerprints from New Castle went into the permanent files of the Federal Bureau of Investigation during the fiscal year 1937, which ended June 30, J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the bureau, reported today.

This was a material decrease from the fiscal year 1936, when 655 New Castle fingerprints were added to the FBI file.

The number of prints filed does not represent the total submitted, it was explained at Mr. Hoover's office, but only those accepted for the permanent file. None of the prints reported as filed during the year had been previously in the FBI records.

Of three possible sources, most of the prints from New Castle came from the police department of the city, officials said. Exactly how many were police prints was not reported, as the bureau groups together prints received from police, from Federal agents located in a town, and from the county sheriff's office, when there is one in a town.

Justice Van Orsdel Born, Reared Here

Late Court Of Appeals Judge Leaves Several Nephews Here

Josiah Alexander Van Orsdel, 76, associate justice of the District of Columbia court of appeals, who died Saturday afternoon at Cabin-in-the-Pines, the home of a niece, Mrs. A. M. Zimmele, Great Barington, Mass., was born and reared at New Bedford and leaves not only a great many friends in this section, but a number of relatives.

Ralph Donaldson of Carlisle street and Will Donaldson of New Castle R. D. 3, are nephews of the deceased and received telegrams telling them of his death and the plans for burial. Mrs. Harry Donaldson of Park avenue is the widow of another nephew.

Justice Van Orsdel was born at New Bedford, youngest son of Ralph and Mary Randolph Van Orsdel. His eight brothers and one sister preceded him in death. He was the last surviving member of his immediate family.

He received degrees from Westminster and Grove City colleges. For a time, it is remembered, he studied law in the office of the late Attorney Samuel W. Dana, father of Attorney Richard Dana. Then he went West, where he was associated with Teddy Roosevelt. Later, when Mr. Roosevelt became President, he appointed Van Orsdel a judge.

The New Bedford boy had married Miss Kate Barnum of Beatrice, Neb., and for 30 years the couple resided in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Van Orsdel survives.

Short services were conducted at four p. m. Monday in the Cabin-in-the-Pines. The body will be transported to Beatrice, Neb., for further services on Friday and burial.

Make Complaint About Car Tracks On Walnut Street

Norman Kiefer and W. R. Rick compained to council on Monday of the condition of the street car tracks in Walnut street and asked the city to do something to remedy the situation.

They said the joints are loose and sometimes when a car passes, tubes are broken in radios, clocks are bounced off shelves and pictures cannot be kept hung straight on walls.

Council said that as soon as a sanitary sewer can be arranged for in Crawford avenue and the work is done the New Castle Street Railway will abandon their line in Walnut street and that the street will be resurfaced.

AROUND CITY HALL

Representatives of an insurance company conferred with the mayor and council at city hall yesterday. It appears that members of the police department have taken out group insurance and the company desired the council to sanction their move without the city, in any way, being held liable. Council referred the request to the solicitor.

Councilman B. F. Butler has asked colleagues what they propose to do toward paving Hutchman street, known more familiarly as "The Dug-Out". He says it is difficult for travel. Owing to the steep grade and the fact that it runs across the P. R. R., it isn't probable that it will be fixed for auto traffic. It would cost $1,100 to make it fit for vehicular traffic, Butler said. He claims it is the main route from Croton avenue to Walnut street. Council may make a decision as to their future course of action soon.

Mayor Charles E. McGrath stated today that after the parking meters begin operation he would like to have citizens express their opinion of the meters after they have watched them work. They were installed on trial to make traffic conditions here better and the mayor said councilmen and he would welcome the comment.

XENIA, O., Aug. 10.—Two telephone numbers have been unchanged for 57 years, according to Harry L. Clark, retired Xenia mail carrier, and the town's first telephone operator.

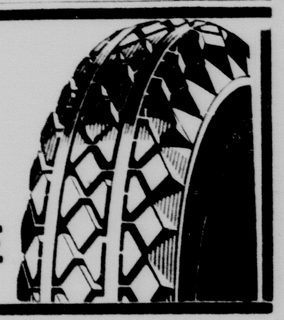

The Pennsylvania railroad freight office has number "77," which was assigned to it with the installation of telephones in Xenia in 1880. At the homestead of the late John Little, former telephone company executive, the phone still rings to number "31" just as it did 57 years ago.

ANNIVERSARY PARTY AT W. G. AYERS HOME

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ayers of 1003 North Jefferson street, were taken by surprise Monday evening, when a group of friends and relatives numbering in the neighborhood of twenty-five, invaded their residence for the purpose of helping to celebrate their thirty-eighth wedding anniversary.

The occasion was successfully planned by Mrs. H. E. Black, a cousin of Mrs. Ayers, assisted by Mrs. A. M. McCallen and Mrs. Charles Craig. They conducted a delightful program of informal pastimes, and at a suitable hour, they served a delicious repast. Due to "Old Man Weather" holding a frown on his brow, favoring this section with rain, the party was held inside, and not on the lawn, as originally planned.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Howell and daughters Mildred and Iva of Youngstown, O., and Mrs. Lee Callahan of Ardmore.

The honored guests were presented with a collection of pretty gifts, as mementos of the happy celebration.

The committee in charge of the table were Thelma Gordon, Martha Houck and Pauline Fredericks.

After the activities, at the park, the group journeyed to the Gospel Tabernacle at East New Castle for the evening services.

Woman Hopes To Save Lover From Death In Chair

Romantic Interlude In Life Of Arthur Chalmers Will Tell Her Story

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—Mrs. Vera Lorden, romantic interlude in the hectic life of Mounted Patrolman Arthur H. Chalmers, wept in her cell today as she reiterated to authorities the story she hopes may save the "Singing Mountie" from the electric chair. Chalmers is held in the slaying of Irma Louise Pradier, French nurse.

The attractive matron, who revealed she accompanied Chalmers on a vacation trip, related he spent little money on the trip. She said this would prove he had not robbed Miss Pradier and add force to his plea that he accidentally killed the nurse during a struggle for his revolver, following Miss Pradier's discovery he was a married man.

Mrs. Lorden was held in $2,500 bail as a material witness. She revealed to authorities her husband had told her he was going to divorce her.

Bury Victims Of "Problem" Slayer

Four Graves, Hold Four White Caskets In Cemetery At Walker's Mills

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 10.—A grave digger today wrote the final chapter in Barney Gregor's "problem" slayings.

Over four graves, holding four white coffins, the cemetery worker placed the earth of St. John's cemetery, Walker's Mills.

Mrs. Anna Gregor, 45, two of her daughters, Betty, 25, and Mary Ann, 15, who were slain by their brother as the "only way out of their difficulties," were buried after services in St. Phillips Catholic church in Crafton.

Barney's body was not permitted in the church, but remained in a funeral parlor while the church services were in progress. He had been denied the services of the Catholic church.

Portrait Painter Will Wed Model

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 10—Malcolm S. Parcell, the well known Washington, Pa., portrait painter, will marry his model Helen L. Gallagher, 34, it became known today.

The couple refused to name the day of the wedding but friends said it will be some time this week. The first inkling that Parcell intended to marry the girl whose contemplative eyes have looked out from many of his canvasses came when they applied for a marriage license.

Exchange Club Meeting Monday

Featuring the weekly dinner meeting of the New Castle Exchange Club, Monday evening in the Elks Club, North Mill street, was an interesting address by John C. Mott, of the Bell Telephone Company.

Mr. Mott brought out a number of interesting facts relative to telephone service. His address proved most instructive. During the usual business session, plans were completed for next Monday's meeting which will be in the form of a social event to be held at Lester Weitzel's cottage, near the Harbor. The event will start at 7 o'clock. An enjoyable program is being arranged.

Controversies About Settled

Farm Relief And Sugar Quota Matters Are Being Adjusted

BELIEVE WAY NOW CLEAR TO END SESSION

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Potential settlement of the legislative controversies between the administration and congressional blocs over farm relief and sugar import quotas today served to smooth the path to an adjournment of congress August 21.

The farm relief contest appeared settled after the senate agriculture committee voted unanimously to report a farm bill one week after congress reconvenes. This would apply either to a special session this fall, or to the regular session in January.

This instruction was to be submitted to the senate for approval in the form of an amendment to the Smith resolution, proposing a sweeping inquiry into farm problems. It was expected to meet the president's demand for a pledge of crop control legislation before he will consent to granting government loans on this year's surplus cotton crop. Anyway, the agriculture committee immediately began drafting a bill, ordering the Commodity Credit Corporation to make the cotton loans.

Appears Settled

The sugar controversy, which involved a conflict over proposed freezing of refined sugar imports from Puerto Rico and Hawaii, also appeared settled. The sugar bloc proposed a percentage quota for refined sugar to apply both to the states and the insular possessions. This would give the islands an opportunity to expand their refined sugar business as the continental demand increased and continental refineries increased their business. It was said to meet the approval of administration officials.

Senator Harrison (D) of Mississippi, senate finance committee chairman, carried this compromise to the White House for the president's consideration.

The administration's wage-hour and housing acts awaited house consideration after passing the senate. The wage-hour bill ran into a snag when a dispute developed in the house rules committee over giving it priority consideration but administration leaders expected to settle this promptly.

Bill In Conference

The substitute judicial reorganization bill remained in conference, where senate and house conferees were wrangling over a senate provision, requiring the attorney general to show a "legal interest" before intervening in lower federal court cases where the constitutionality of an act of congress is challenged. House conferees demanded the condition be removed, so the attorney general will have unlimited power to intervene in such cases.

The only major threat to adjournment appeared to be the threat of the senateanti-lynching bloc to force consideration of their bill. The senate was scheduled today to act on a minor wild life conservation bill and a measure to prohibit picketing around foreign embassies in this country.

CONSTRUCTION OF NEW TVA DAM TO BE DELAYED

(International News Service)

PADUCAH, Ky.—Actual construction of the Gilbertsville Dam will not begin before 1940, according to a report brought here by City Manager L. V. Bean following a conference at Knoxville with Tennessee Valley Authority officials.

Bean said that preliminary plans for the project, which has already been popularly called the Gilbertsville Dam because of the possible construction near Gilbertsville, would be started within six months and that approximately 3,000 employes would receive employment at the peak of construction.

The cost of the dam has been estimated at $112,000,000, a portion of which has been used for preliminary work in choosing an acceptable site in the Gilbertsville area.

Japan Viewed As Seeking Outlet From 'Iron Lung'

Present Trouble In North China Attempt To Break Confinement

(International News Service)

BERKELEY, Cal.—An "iron lung" of geographical confinement surrounds Japan today, and her operations in north China and elsewhere may be interpreted as her attempt to break out of this confinement.

This novel diagnosis was made here today by Galen Fisher, Institute of Pacific Relations trustee and authority on the Far East, who is lecturing at International House, University of California.

"The Japanese feel," he said, "they have been thrust into an iron lung, that they have been forced to stay cooped in their Procrustean island crib, while the great world powers have stretched themselves on double beds."

She has therefore a growing national consciousness of "manifest destiny" to extend her sway over the backward peoples of Asia, Fisher said.

As measures that should be taken by the United States and other world powers to reduce Japan's "blood pressure," Fisher mentioned the following points:

1. Let several equatorial colonies, rich in raw materials, be placed under international mandate.
2. Let the neutrality of the Philippine Islands be internationally guaranteed.
3. Place Japan and China upon the immigration quota basis, thus allowing about 300 Japanese and Chinese combined to enter the United States each year.
4. Adopt more mutually beneficial trade agreements similar to the cotton agreements negotiated by Dr. Murchison in Japan last winter on behalf of American cotton exporters.

KENTUCKY JOBS RISE
(International News Service)

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—Jobs in private businesses were obtained for 3,202 persons in Kentucky during May, according to a report compiled by the National Re-Employment Service and the Kentucky State Employment Service.

The engagements represented an increase of 120 per cent over the same month in 1936. During the same period 2,565 were placed in public jobs, the report showed.

The time for sowing annuals depends upon the types of seeds that are to be planted. Many of the hardy annuals may be sown to advantage in late fall. In this group are such plants as larkspur, poppies, cornflowers and portulaca.

New Library May Be Ready In November

Trustees Are Hoping Handsome Home May Be Occupied Then

New Castle's new Free Public Library home at East North and North Mercer streets may be ready for occupancy sometime in November, it was said today by Attorney Clarence A. Patterson of the library's board of trustees.

"We hope that we can move into the handsome building then," Mr. Patterson said. "But we can't say definitely that we will."

Cleansing of the building's outside walls was nearing completion today. Interior renovation work was proceeding on schedule. Considerable work remains to be done.

Gasoline tax paid by U. S. motorists during the first quarter of 1937 was 15 per cent greater than the tax for the similar period in 1936.

ACCIDENT VICTIM DIES FROM INJURIES

KITTANNING, Pa., Aug. 10.—William Chandler, 22-year-old local youth and a Harvard student, died in the Armstrong County Hospital here today from injuries sustained in an automobile accident yesterday between Petrollia and Butler.

He had suffered a fractured skull, crushed elbow and internal injuries.

New Brighton Man Is Killed

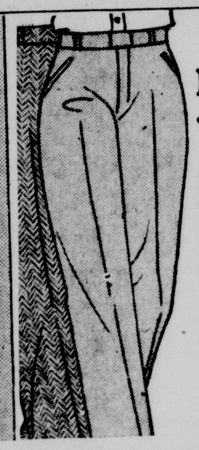

(International News Service)

MONACA, Pa., Aug. 10.—Henry Best, 55, of New Brighton, was electrocuted early Monday while operating an electric furnace in the St. Joseph Lead Company plant here, according to a coroner's report. His son, Wilbert, was killed in a train accident several months ago.

Fashion note: Street railway superintendent at Seattle issued an order permitting car operators to go without coats, but 'suspenders" he added "are out." Belts only. There is no need for suspenders while a man is operating a street car or bus."

Frank Wilson, 49, Baltimore, Md., knocked on the wrong door at Sharon to ask for a "handout." He chose the door of City Detective Walter Snider, who, after questioning the man, arrested him on a vagrancy charge.

Charles B. Hughes' bantam hen strutted into her barnyard near Phoenix, Ariz., after a week in the dessert. In her wake were eleven quail chicks. Apparently taking readily to their new life the chicks, usually difficult to domesticate, go scratching about as freely as their foster mother, Hughes said.

There's a gasoline war in progress at Pittsburgh, the second in three months. Ma and Pa Pitt are taking all the kids for a ride. Price-cutting has resulted in making gas two to four cents cheaper than the usual level (20 cents.)

Postmaster Edward A. Tigner, of Middledgville, Ga., thinks that employes of the Atlantic Ice Company have gone too far in striving to please. Dr. Tigner left a watermelon at the ice house to be cooled. Following custom he carved his intitials in the melon. Employes saw the melon and the letters "EAT." They followed instructions.

The problems of where to get enough money to pay for putting plaster pants on fifty male nude statues perplexed the Kankakee, (Ill.) school board today. Recently a New York sculptor donated statuary valued at $100,000 to the Central school of which he is an alumnus. When the school board blushingly suggested that the statues were a bit, er, unclad, the sculptor threatened to withdraw his gift but later consented to have the males dressed if the females stayed unadorned. Twelve of the statues were draped by an artist engaged for the job, but there are fifty or more to go and there are no available school funds for the purpose. They are talking of having a civic drive to raise money for completion of the pants project.

D. A. Cross found his cat lying in the road, near his home at Crofton, Mass. apparently dead. So he buried it. Next day the cat, shaking off a little dirt, scampered up to the house for food.

Former Butler Bandit Is Held By Federal Men

Federal Agents Put End To Career Of Crime Of Clair Ralph Gibson

HAS CONFESSED MANY ROBBERIES

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Federal agents wrote finish today to the criminal career of 31-year-old Clair Gibson who left Butler, Pa., a few years ago and attempted to take up the fallen mantle of John Dillinger.

Captured a week ago with his sweetheart, Violet Bruss, at a hideout near Loon Lake, Ore., Gibson confessed to operatives of the federal bureau of investigation participation in 22 bank robberies, three attempted bank robberies and the holdup of an auto finance company at Barberton, O. The robberies dated since 1932.

The state of Iowa, the bureau reported, also wants Gibson for the murder of James Zrostlik, allegedly killed by the desperado and his associates while they were fleeing through the middle west following a bank robbery in Conneautville, Pa.

Confesses Robberies

Grilled by agents, Gibson revealed that he had been living at the Oregon hideout for the past five months. According to the FBI, Gibson married a Sioux City, Iowa, girl eight years ago and has a daughter. Agents said he has since deserted his wife and child and since August, 1936 his traveling companion has been Violet Bruss of Winona, Minn.

Among the robberies engaged in by Gibson, according to his confession, are the Euclid Ave., State Bank, Des Moines; the North Hill Savings and Loan Company, Akron, and institutions in Ames, Oelwein, Morningside, Carpenter, Moville and Merrill, Iowa; four banks in Minnesota and six in South Dakota.

Gibson is being removed to St. Paul where he is under indictment in connection with the robbery of the State Bank of Cold Spring, Minn., and the Farmers State Bank of Evota, Minn.

Hanna Announces For Re-Election

Register And Recorder Asks Democratic Nomination For Second Term

WILLIAM R. HANNA

William R. Hanna, Register and Recorder of Lawrence County today announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for the office he now holds. His announcement follows:

"Four years ago I was elected Register and Recorder of Lawrence County. In my campaign then I said that this office was not a policy making office, that it was a ministerial office and called for application to duty if the office was to be filled properly.

In my four years of service I have endeavored to carry out the platform upon which I ran. While I was elected as a member and the candidate of the Democratic party I have not permitted party fealty to interfere with an impartial, competent discharge of the duties imposed.

The office of Register and Recorder is an important one. Every deed, every will, every instrument which is to be made an instrument of record passes through the office and unless the Register and Recorder is on the job constantly he cannot serve the people of this county efficiently.

It has been the custom in Lawrence County for many many years to return the Register and Recorder for a second term. This custom has a very logical background. Experience in the office tends to greater efficiency and in the recording of legal papers efficiency is vitally important.

I have given the people of this county the best service of which I was capable. I am willing to submit my record in the office as the best reason for nomination and re-election. If I am fortunate enough to be honored with the office again I can pledge nothing more than what I have done in the past four years, the best I can do."

"The duties of the office are such that I will be unable to call upon all the voters personally, hence I take this means to ask their support."

New Highway Safety Laws

Only One Trailer Allowed On Commercial Vehicles Now

HARRISBURG—Secretary of Revenue J. Griffith Boardman today called attention to two new provisions of the motor vehicle code which are intended to promote safety on the highways.

The first provision outlaws more than one trailer attached to a motor vehicle. Heretofore, long articulated vans and tank trucks created serious hazards particularly on hilly and twisty roads. Confining such vehicles to the single trailer drawn by a motor truck is intended to reduce highway congestion and provide safer control of the vehicles.

The other provision makes fines for drunken driving payable to the treasury of the county in which the violation occurs. This money is to be used by the counties for the payment of physicians' fees for the examination of persons accused of driving cars while intoxicated. Heretofore many persons arrested for drunken driving escaped punishment because physicians refused to examine defendants, knowing that they would be unable to collect their examination fees.

To Place Hydrant On East Brook Road

Council on Monday adopted a motion submitted by Safety Director J. M. Rice which will result in a fire hydrant being installed in East Brook street, 600 feet distant from the corner of Croton avenue and East Brook street. The hydrant will cost the city $36 a year. Not long ago East Brook residents asked that a hydrant be installed for protection. The New Castle Water company today also was given permission to construct a water line in East Brook stre-

OLD CERTIFICATES OF TRUCKERS GOOD

HARRISBURG—The Public Utility Commission in a statement released today removes whatever doubts certificated truckers may have had regarding their status since the new public utility law became effective on June 1.

The commission says that certificates of public convenience issued by the Public Service Commission or by its successor, the Public Utility Commission, prior to June 1, 1937, continue in effect just as though the old public service company law, under which the certificates were issued, had not been repealed.

Over Thousand In Mercer County Receive Benefits

Average Old Age Assistance Grants In County Are About $21

(Special To The News)

MERCER, Pa., Aug. 10.—There are 1,079 persons receiving average old age assistance grants of $20.85 per month in Mercer county. The waiting list has been cleared, and all applicants who have been on the assistance roll for the past two years are being contacted to determine their continued eligibility. Office hours in the various districts of the county will be announced.

There are 130 blind beneficiaries in Mercer county receiving grants of $29.88. During the past year 57 new beneficiaries have been placed on the payroll, and applications are now considered as received.

It is not necessary to be a blind pension beneficiary in order to be a talking book borrower, as the books are available to all blind persons in the county. Twenty-four talking book machines have been distributed in the county. They were manufactured by the federal government through an appropriation of WPA funds and have been distributed by the local Mother's Assistance Fund office.

A talking book machine resembles a phonograph, but is so constructed that it is easily operated by a blind person. The sound re-production records are supplied through the library of congress. An appropriation of $175,000 was made by congress for the coming fiscal year for the publication and distribution of talking books.

The Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh is the distributing center for this district and there is no postal charge. In 1935 there were 1,500 blind people with talking book machines, while this year it is estimated that there are 18,000 owners in the United States.

There are plenty of woolen dresses in the autumn collections, pale leather tones being much in evidence.

Expect Many Floats In Parade

Construction Of Floats Under Way At Standard Steel Car Works

Probabilities are that the labor celebration and exposition parade on Labor Day will be one of the most spectacular parades the city ever has had, it having been indicated that many organizations as well as commercial and industrial firms will be represented by floats in the line.

Owing to this the committee in charge of the week's celebration has engaged Wolverine Decorators, Inc., one of the outstanding firms in the country to building and decorate the floats. Their men already have arrived here and will do their work at the Standard Steel Car Works building in Mahoning avenue.

According to the committee considerable time is required for each float. John P. Brogan, secretary of the Trades and Labor Assembly which is sponsoring the affair reports that Mr. Shipp is in charge of the construction and decoration of the floats.

War Veterans To Build Peace Temple At New York Fair

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—A $500,000 Veteran's Temple of Peace will be erected at the 1939 New York World's Fair from subscriptions raised by veteran's organizations and those who espouse world peace, it was announced today.

Milton Solomon, deputy city controller and chairman of the Fair's Veteran's Advisory committee, in making the revelation, said that definite plans for the erection of the temple were consummated at recent flag raising ceremonies on the plot where the temple will stand.

The building proposed will occupy a plot of ground 300 by 300, a total of 90,000 square feet, and symbolize in its architecture the spirit in which it was erected. During the progress of the Fair it will serve as headquarters for visiting veterans who are members of the several national organizations and for veterans of all other countries.

The structure will also house valuable historical exhibits relative to the patriotic services American veterans have rendered in the wars of their country.

The committee is still open to suggestions for the structure as the final plans have not yet been approved, Solomon said.

Veteran's organizations in this country embrace more than 4,000,000 ex-service men who are represented on the Fair Committee by members of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, United Spanish War Veterans, Disabled American War Veterans, Jewish War Veterans and members of the Grand Army of the Republic.

The sooner you plan your future... the better your future will be.

PRAYERS URGED FOR VICTIMS OF SPANISH STRIFE

(International News Service)

ROME—Pope Pius has requested Catholics throughout the world wishing to aid their brothers-in-region in blood-ridden Spain to limit themselves for the time being to "continued meditation and prayer."

Disclosure of the Pontiff's wish followed publication of a letter sent to the Archbishop of Genoa by Cardinal Isidore Goma'y Tomas, Archbishop of Toledo, and Primate of Spain, stating the Pope had sanctioned his proposal for a world-wide church collection appeal to provide funds for rebuilding Spanish churches.

Bitterly flaying the Spanish Reds the Primate of Spain writes:

"A war between hard fighting belligerents and lasting as long as the war we are suffering, necessarily spells general destruction. But to this, in Spain, must be added the systematic pillaging of every zone which falls into the hands of the Marxists. Not one house of God has been respected."

CATERPILLAR WAR IN VENANGO COUNTY

(International News Service)

FRANKLIN, Pa., Aug. 10.—Nature destroys its own that man may live more comfortably.

Tent caterpillars, which had overrun Venango County, are now faced with their natural enemy—a species of the ichnumen fly according to county farm agent Egene Ifft.

The fly is a parasite insect, Ifft said, and is attacking the caterpillars.

Confirmation of fly vs caterpillar was given by L. E. Bills, entomologist of State College.

New Provisions In Motor Code

Drivers Must Not Leave After Hitting Parked Cars

HARRISBURG, Aug. 10.—Secretary of Revenue J. Griffith Boardman today said a new provision of the Motor Vehicle Code provides that when a motorist collides with a parked car he must either immediately locate and inform the owner of the damaged automobile or leave a notice on the car setting forth his name and address and the circumstances of the accident. He is also required to make a report of the accident to the Department of Revenue within twenty-four hours.

Stickers or posters of any nature other than the official inspection stickers may not be displayed on the windshield, rear or side windows or on any side wings of any car operated on the highways of Pennsylvania. The penalty for violating this provision is a fine of $5 and costs.

Another section requires trailers designed for living quarters or carrage of persons to be equipped with fire extinguishers of approved types.

RAIL CROSSING SURVEY BEGINS

HARRISBURG, Aug. 10.—A survey of railroad crossings in cities and boroughs has been started by the Highway Planning Division of the Department of Highways, Secretary Warren Van Dyke announced today.

The study follows a recent survey of crossings outside of municipalities which listed more than 12,000 urban and rural grade crossings in the state.

"The primary objective of the entire survey," Mr. Van Dyke said, "is to decrease the hazards of highway traffic and to improve safety and the service of our highways.

"The study will enable us to prepare comprehensive programs of crossing elimination, betterment, and improved protection."

COW REARS BUFFALO CALF

MISSOULA, Mont.—An albino buffalo calf born on the national bison range near Moiese, Mont., May 8, is being reared by a sympathetic milk cow.

The cow adopted the unusual calf after his own mother had abandoned him on the range because he was blind and could not follow her.

The albino calf has been named Big Medicine, Jr., his father being Big Medicine, also a pure white bison. The father and son are said to be the only known white bison in the United States.

AIRLINE STEWARDS NURSE GOLDFISH

(International News Service)

MIAMI, Fla.—Air line stewards have proved their versatility in a new emergency—by playing nursemaid to a bowl of goldfish!

The occasion arose when General Oscar R. Benavides, president of Peru, ordered that several dozen of the finny creatures be shipped to him from the United States.

Thanks to the care of the stewards, the fish safely weathered the 3,416 mile trip from Miami's International Pan-American Airport to Lima, Peru.

Yet old-timers can remember when nice girls wouldn't flirt with a man because he was married.

Musicians have an unusual opportunity to secure work by an enlistment in the United States Army service. According to Corporal Geo. Trebesh, officer in charge of the local station, a number of vacancies now exist for local musicians in the army bands.

Every regiment in the army has its own band, making the field for musicians very wide, and affording an excellent opportunity for persons trained in this field to secure employment.

Full information regarding this branch of the government service is available at the Army recruiting station in the post office building.

Defer Action In Highway Strike

Schuylkill County Maintenance Workers Of State Highway Are On Strike

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Aug. 10.—Adjustment of differences in the strike of more than 250 Schuylkill county maintenance workers of the state highway department was referred today by Highways Secretary Warren Van Dyke pending the superintendent's report.

Van Dyke, although pointing out he had no objection to organization of the highway workers for collective bargaining purposes, asserted there appeared to be a difference of opinion "why these men went out".

The workers demand 62½ cents an hour and a guarantee of 50 weeks work a year. They charge they are being paid wages below that of workers on WPA projects.

C. I. O. Plans To Pass Leaflets At Ford Plant

(International News Service)

DETROIT, Aug. 10.—The C.I.O.'s United Automobile Workers Union today recruited 300 of its members to distribute union leaflets at the gates of Henry Ford's main plant in Dearborn tomorrow after making chages Dearborn city officials were inciting "lawless elements" there to turn the incident into a riot.

The first attempt to pass out unionism literature at the plant last May 26 ended in a riot in which a score of unionists were beaten.

Charges that Dearborn city officials were taking a stand "such as to constitute a definite incitement to violence on the part of lawless elements" were made by Maurice Sugar, U.A.W. attorney, in a letter to Prosecutor Duncan C. McCrea. Sugar appealed to McCrea to send observers to the plant tomorrow.

The U.A.W. attorney also appealed to Sheriff Thomas C. Wilcox to "provide adequate protection" for the unionists.

First Nickel Is Placed In Meter

Carmi Glover and other employes of the department of streets today affixed meters, commonly called "caps" to the supports which have been installed in various downtown thoroughfares. However, operation of the parking meters will not start until 8 a. m. Thursday, according to Mayor Charles E. McGrath.

As soon as the "caps" were installed on top of the supports today they drew considerable attention. One motorist, apparently a stranger, parked his car in East Washington street, then inserted a nickle in the machine and the meter started ticking.

Other persons stopped to study the meters which are being installed for a six months' trial.

Haunted Houses Are Man's Hobby

New York Writer Prowls Around Haunted Places At Night Making Models

NEW DANGEROUS LADY TYPE FOUND

By O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—I have a literary friend whose relaxing moments are spent in prowling around haunted houses late at night and from which he makes models. There is more material than one might imagine. Every town and city neighborhood has its haunted house.

O. O. McIntyre

Most of them run to fictional type—lop sided, decayed, with mournful cedars waving gaunt branches across the broken windows. Floors that creak and mumble. And always a grown up garden and an abandoned cistern where someone reputedly fell in one stormy night.

Too, the woodshed where feathers floated, drifted and swirled in the still air as the spook passed by. There are, in the central section of New York 15 houses, difficult to rent. Real estate agents say frankly they are jinxed by ghost rumors.

People in a spirit of bravado often rent houses supposed to be haunted. But the records show they invariably leave within a very short time. They will admit they have never seen a ghost but they do hear strange noises. The fact is every house has strange noises.

The newest type of Dangerous Lady in the snack bars is the pseudo athletic girl. The half world has thumbs downed on old artifices, realizing they only serve as hands off warnings. That is the rouge pot, the exotic perfume, bright red nails, heavily kohled eyes and the bizarre frock. So the something new in gay deceivers appear as though they had just returned from the golf course, with golf bags, etc. or the tennis court with racket in case. All this to stress their innocence—but they employ the same old devices. After a few drinks they mention in off hand their little apartment around the corner!

It was a swell reception Ted Lewis received upon his return to Broadway after a lapse of many years—much longer than the usual piffawmer stays away from the street. For Ted with his battered hat and clarinet began on Broadway in the remembered days of Rector's and doubtless overstayed his welcome because he was beginning to be bracketed among has-beens. Sensibly, he pulled up stakes and found a hearty reception trouping across the outland. He became an especial favorite in Chicago where he has been for several years. And so this summer the new generation of New Yorkers as well as the old have been making him feel at home. Lewis was the original delineator of jazz and his methods are in use by many imitators.

One wonders just what was Ted Lewis' reaction to the claptrap Broadway in contrast to the one he knew so well. There are restaurants in New York today that far excel Rector's, where Ted started, in cuisine but none has recaptured its glamour. Too, George Rector had a way of making people of importance feel the place was opened solely for them. And of looking through people who didn't matter and jockeying them behind the palms right next to the drummer. Rector's was snooty and there was and still is a vast public that feels flattered when welcomed in the snooty spots.

Most families of wealth who hire French chefs—paid in instances as high as $12,000 a year—have to employ especial pastry cooks. The French know scarcely anything about deserts. Their list is confined to a souffle, a raw peach on a pad of cotton or sliced fruit. Employment agencies say there has arisen a vogue for German cooking the past year and those of that nationality especially skilled find no trouble getting crack jobs.

Our grocery delivery boy is a blend of Burgess Meredith and Buddy Ebsen plus a tousle of red hair and plentious freckles. He comes in whistling or boo-boo-booing in the manner of Bing Crosby. "Every guy I know," he said today, "is soured on the world. That's a lot of peach fuzz. I got my youth, health and a swell girl. We have teamed up in a dancing act and are playing the amateur nights to break in. But someday you'll see us at Loew's State. So with youth, health, a swell girl and a career can you blame a fellow for being bubbly?" And somehow you can't.

Two Judges Here To Make Election Requirement Easy

Don't Face Dilemma In Which One County Judges Find Themselves

Owing to the fact that Lawrence county has two judges, it will be a comparatively easy matter to carry out the provisions of the primary election law which says, "Courts shall remain in continuous session from 7 a. m. to 10 p. m." Judges Chambers and Braham can alternate long enough to take time out to eat on the day of the primaries, September 14.

But what about counties where there is only one Judge. Up in Venango Judge Lee McCracken has been worrying over the situation as he must hold court in Franklin and lives in Oil City. He saw that if he had to sit on the bench continuously on primary day, he would not only miss his meals, but miss his vote, so he wrote to the department at Harrisburg to see what should be done about it.

Director James H. Wallace has written back indicating that the law means what it says, but added that common sense should be used in interpreting it. "If a judge gets hungry or should want to vote on election day, he should take action according to the circumstances. I predict the courts will interpret the law that way" adds Wallace

Breaks His Back As He Swings At Golf Ball On Tee

(International News Service)

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., Ag. 10—Golf is a strenuous game and by no means free of danger, as Julius Harr, 44, a Wheeling, W. Va., devotee of the pastime, attested Monday.

Harr stepped up to the first tee at the Belmont Hills country club course here and took a powerful cut at the ball. A few minutes later he was on his way to a hospital where it was said his back was broken but he would recover.

CONFUSED RECEPTION

(International News Service)

PORTLAND, Ore.—Because he held up sailing of the Japanese steamer Hakushika Maru on a libel, United States Marshal Jack Summerville was cursed and thanked in the same breath by the ship's first mate. "You no good, you no good. You stop us sailing. Thank you!" the mate said to Summerville as he departed after tying up the ship.

Warns Against Incorrect Auto License Cards

People Who Move About Must Notify Department Immediately

HARRISBURG, Aug. 10.—Secretary of Revenue J. Griffith Boardman today warned owners and operators of motor vehicles against operating their cars with their registration or operator's license cards showing incorrect names or addresses.

"An amendment to the Vehicle Code passed at the recent session of the General Assembly imposes a fine of $5 for operating a car with an incorrect name or address shown on either the registration card or operator's license," Mr. Boardman said.

"I urge every motorist to get out his cards and see if they are imprinted with his present address. The law requires the motorist to notify the Department of Revenue of any change of name or address within 48 hours. The penalty is applied for operating a car when this requirement is ignored.

Youth Thumbs Way Into Hands Of Law

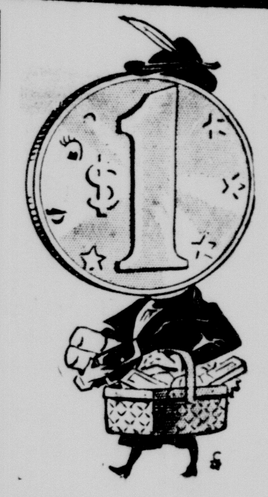

(International News Service)

BUTLER, Pa., Aug. 10—A 17 year old Lyndora youth ran away from home and thumbed his way back—quite unintentionally, into the hands of the state motor police.

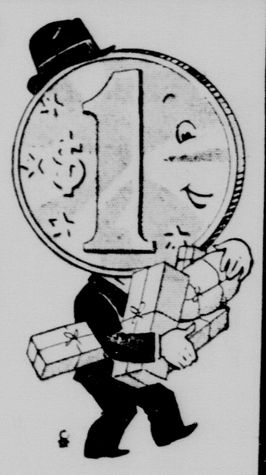

The lad's grandmother, with whom he and a brother lived, reported the missing youth, police said. Private Rudolph Weir overheard the description.

A few minutes later private Weir was detailed to go to Butler post office to get the mail. Enroute a boy answering the description thumbed a ride.

Very obligingly Private Weir hauled him to the barracks where he was identified as the missing youth.

LOST RING RECOVERED

(International News Service)

WILLINGTON, Conn.—Ten years ago, Mrs. Charles Farra lost her wedding ring and had no idea where she lost it.

Recently, Charles Kenfield at his annual task of spading up his garden dug up the ring. He recalled that Mr. and Mrs. Farra had stopped at his house the night Mrs. Farra lost the ring.

Yet annual spading of the garden failed to turn it up until now.

Chest Campaign October 4 To 9

Tentative Dates Set At Session Of Board; Local Man Director

October 4 to 9, was announced today as the tentative date for New Castle's 1937 Community Chest campaign.

The period was designated when members of the organization's board of directors gathered last night for their August meeting in the Chest headquarters at 37 North Mercer street. Presiding was President A. L. Bintz, Jr.

With the major part of the evening's discussion bearing upon the city-wide financial drive of next fall, the board members took up item by item the more important details of the annual campaign. The eight Chest agencies derive support from the solicitation.

Local Man To Direct

Selection of the New Castle man who will be the campaign director was left in the hands of the campaign's executive committee. The chairman and personnel of that committee is to be announced within a few days. A committee to check the budgets of the participating agencies was also named.

Publicity for the fall drive will be handled this year by Mrs. Sarah S. McCune.

Routine matters of concern to the directors were also discussed.

Croton Auxiliary Picnic On Sunday

Event At Attractive Lakewood Beach Attracts Several Hundred Persons

Without a doubt, Sunday's annual outing of the Croton Progressive auxiliary, held at beautiful Lakewood Beach, was the most enjoyable and most successful in the history of the Croton organization.

Enough food and refreshments were dished out to feed a little army. The several hundred young ladies present whiled away the hours playing games. Much spirited solo and group singing reverberated over the hills and trees surrounding the placid lake of the summer resort. Much of the credit for the amazing event goes to Lucille Cush Rubeis, president of the auxiliary, and her efficient aides, leaders of the various committees: Misses Margaret Mancine, Jean DiSalvo, Louise Audia, Rose Rubeis, Peg DeLorenzo, Grace and Rose Venasco, Theresa Pascarella, Laura Leonelli and Phillie DiLorenzo who had charge of all events and races for the single girls, and Sadie Caffro, Millie Perrotta, Connie Bloise, Clara Rubeis, Mary Tavolier, Brunie Perrotta, Lillian Staffa and Rose Ross, who were in charge of events listed for married women.

Winners of the various events: 50 yard dash single girls, Rose Rubeis; 50 yard dash married women, Rose Ross; three legged race won by Rose Ross and Helen Richards; cracker eating contest, Rose Venasco; egg throwing contest, Mollie Gunn and Phoebe McCracken; sack race, Vera Pascarella; ball throwing event, Rose Granata and Margaret DiLorenzo; 100 yard dash for single girls, Margaret Mancine; 100 yard dasn for married women, Tillie DiCava; egg carrying contest, Antonetta DiSalvo; fat women's race, Sadie Caffro.

Featuring the softball game was a home run by Brunie Perrotta, for the married women. The more agile single girls won by an 8-6 count.

Out of town guests included: Sara Dedio, of Buffalo, Elva DiAlgier, of Cleveland, Mrs. Elsie Robertson, of Alliance, Lucy Daltorio, of New York, Honnie Vincent, of Detroit, and Mary Granata, of Buffalo. The instrumentalists who played many enjoyable numbers on the accordion, the guitar and the banjo were members of the DeFalvo troupe of Pittsburgh, Lena DiArgent, Mary Ditorre, Jennie Renni and Eleanor Marcocci.

Silk And Rayon Industries Strike In Second Day

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—The strike of approximately 30,000 eastern workers in the silk and rayon industries entered its second day with spokesmen for the C. I. O. textile workers organizing committee here declaring the movement was "extremely successful."

Sections affected were northern New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York and New England, although few workers were called out in New England because all large plants and most small ones there already are under contracts. The strikers seek a 40-hour week, wage increases and appointment of the C. I. O. as sole bargaining agency.

Many employers are supporting the strike because they believe organization of the two industries will stabilize operating conditions.

Little disorder was reported.

East Brook Grange To Meet Thursday

R. Walton.

Instead of reading lines on their palms, Chinese read lines on the soles of their feet.

Information On Parking Meters

System On Washington Street To Be Placed In Operation On Thursday

Parking meters in Washington street between Shenango and Court streets will be placed in operation at 8 a.m. Thursday. A fee of five cents will be charged for one hour of parking.

All one needs to do is to drive into one of the parking zones, insert a nickle in the meter, turn the crank and the meter will start operating.

According to Mayor McGrath the meters have been erected on an angle in order to help the motorist see more readily.

If a motorist drives away before one hour of parking is consumed and another motorist desires to use the remaining part of the hour he may do so, the mayor stated.

The ordinance says that parking shall cost 5 cents between 8 a.m. and 6 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and between 8 a.m. and 9 p.m. on Saturday. No parking fee shall be charged on Sunday or holidays.

Sufficient free space has been left at the post office for the transaction of business. However, a 10 minute parking limit has been established there and will be enforced, Mayor McGrath stated.

LIGHTNING BOLTS CAUSE DEAFNESS

(International News Service)

BROADUS, Mont.—William Davis, now practically deaf, testifies to the fallacy of the ancient belief that lightning never strikes twice in the same place.

He was herding sheep near here when a bolt of lightning struck the right side of his head, tearing a large hole in his hat. Two minutes later, before he had moved any considerable distance, another bolt hit him in the chest, ran down his body, splitting his socks and tearing the soles from both shoes.

His hearing was destroyed by the experience.

Issues Statement On Parking Meters

Mayor Announces Meters Will Go Into Operation Thursday Morning

During council meeting at the city building Monday, Mayor Charles E. McGrath and colleagues issued a statement relative to the operation of parking meters here. The statement is as follows:

"After several months of investigation the Mayor and City Council decided to install parking meters in the business district for the purpose of letting the citizens see for themselves the operation of a new system of handling traffic, which is a serious problem in practically every city. The officials found that they could install these meters and give the citizens this opportunity, without any cost to the city and they felt that it was well worth trying.

"The meters on Washington street will go into effect on Thursday morning at eight o'clock and we are asking the citizens to take an interest in observing the operation of these meters and to with-hold their opinions until they have had an opportunity to see for themselves whether or not they think they are worth keeping and we will welcome their comments. This does not mean that everybody coming downtown will have to pay for parking space. There are streets that do not have the meters and there are freeparking grounds at the foot of Mercer street, owned by the city, where people will be welcome to leave their cars without cost.

Parking Meters In Place Today To Run Thursday

Workmen were busy during the night, and this morning downtown shoppers and workers found nearly all of the new parking meters in place on top of their recently erected posts. Everything will be in readiness to place the meters in service on Thursday as scheduled.

The newly installed meters were attracting considerable attention from New Castleites. Gathered about nearly every meter was a small crowd of persons this morning examining the new-fangled machines and discussing their merits pro and con.

The doors on the meters were left open after their installation and the entire mechanism was being examined by passersby. One side of the meter is taken up with a metal plate explaining just how the meter is operated and the times when they are to be in operation.

State To Take Over More Roads

Many Additional Miles Will Be Added To System In January

TOWNSHIPS AND CITIES BENEFIT

By WARREN VAN DYKE
Secretary of Highways

HARRISBURG, Aug. 10—The Department of Highways has started a survey of approximately 2600 miles of township, borough and city roads which are to be added to the State system on January 1.

This study will show generally the physical character of the roads which the last legislature transferred to our jurisdiction. Although the specific routes and their locations were designated in the legislation, the department wants to know just what is included in the added mileage. The survey is to be completed December 1.

Undoubtedly, we will find that many of these roads are in bad condition. Thus, the survey will indicate where repairs are needed most urgently and whether some of the roads should be reconstructed.

Survey crews will note the type of surface and width, the number of bridges and their measurements, and the number of railroad grade crossings and tracks. The State will take over 2,286 miles of township roads, 109 miles of borough streets, 22 miles of city streets, and 157 miles in Philadelphia, a total of 2,574 miles.

Our engineers estimate there are approximately 1200 bridges on the highways to be transferred to the State. These bridges of course, will become part of the State system which now includes about 18,000 spans. Many of them probably will have to be strengthened or replaced.

It is quite evident that this transfer will further increase the department's responsibilities in maintaining Pennsylvania's position as the leader among all the states in improved highways.

The effect of this legislation is to make for a closer co-ordination of our entire system. It provides extensions to and connections between many existing State highways.

At the same time this action will save the political subdivisions large sums in maintenance costs and thus make possible corresponding reductions in the local tax burdens.

When the floods of March 1936 struck Pennsylvania many bridges were swept away. Had not the State taken over 7,950 bridges the previous year, many local governmental units would mave faced financial ruin because of lack of funds to repair and replace those lost spans.

Most of the bridges taken over in 1935 were in poor condition making it necessary for the department to establish a $4,000,000 fund to repair and replace the unsafe structures in the first year.

The importance of bridges to an efficient network of traffic arteries cannot be over-emphasized. No matter how splendid a highway is, it can be rendered dangerous and inefficient by obsolete bridges. Old and inadequate structures have been allowed to remain in sparsely populated areas probably because many hundred feet of road could be built for what even a short span would cost.

Three Americans Survive Smashup

(International News Service)

HONGKONG, Aug. 10. — Three Americans were among the survivors of the wreck of a China National Aviation seaplane brought ashore Monday by the British warship Thracian. The aircraft was forced down sixe miles off Chelang Point in heavy seas.

E. S. Smith, American pilot, an unnamed American co-pilot, and E. M. Walsh, American employed by the Kwantung government, were among those saved.

Miss Anna Fletcher, stenographer in the office of Sheriff D. Pritchard, has returned to her desk after a two weeks 'vacation.

Mrs. Mary Conti, court interpretress, was unable to be present at sentence court yesterday on account of a previous engagement with lumbago.

Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard has returned from Philadelphia, where he attended a celebration commemorating the 150th anniversary of the signing of the constitution.

Anne Massine has filed an application at the prothonotary's office for a divorce from her husband, Adam Masine of Ellwood City on the grounds of cruelty. The couple were married in May, 1936.

Sixty-three instruments of all kinds were entered at the office of Register and Recorder William R. Hanna last week. Of this number 23 were deeds and 15 mortgages. Of the mortgages, seven totaling $12,500 were given to building and loan Associations; four, totaling $6,600 to banks, and four, totaling $6,100 to individuals.

The New Castle Lumber & Construction company, use of Chamberlain and Cline, has filed a scire facias to revive a judgment at the prothonotary's office against Joseph F. Keela and Eleanor Maggaj. The amount is $478.

The county commissioners have filed a petition setting forth that on June 14, 1926, a lot in the Country club plot at Ellport was sold to them for taxes as the property of Peter Nivronski. The right to redemption expired in June, 1931. John and Catherine Partridge have agreed to purchase the lot for $94.42, the amount of the delinquent taxes, and the court is asked to approve the sale.

Registration Clerk Thomas Edmunds and assistants have been kept on the jump lately registering voters, particularly from the country districts. However, it is said that there are large numbers who are still unregistered, and efforts are being made to get them in before the time limit expires.

County commissioners have received word that the state will go ahead with proposed changes on the Edenburg-Hillsville road. The plan is to build a new road from the school house at the western end of the present concrete northwest to the Poland, O., road about one mile north of Hillsville. The road would be almost all through worked over limestone company property. It would pass close to the front of the Catholic church at the Brier Hill quarry. The new road would be in a straight line from the school house mentioned above to the Poland road. The present Edenburg-Hillsville road has a number of sharp curves, and for this reason it has been thought best to build an entirely new road. It is understood that the limestone companies will donate most of the land to be taken.

Under the new regulations of the game commission, a copy of which has been received by County Treasurer Joseph H. Hartland, the former 30-day possession of game after the close of the open season is still in effect. Persons desiring to retain lawfully killed game for a longer period must apply for a special permit.

Live raccoons, lawfully taken, may be retained indefinitely if a permit, issued without charge, is secured within five days after the close of the season. Propagating permits are required to propagate raccoons.

Hunting hours for all game are 7 a. m. to 5 p. m. during the open season, except Sunday. Raccoons may be hunted day or night.

No automatic firearms may be used to take wild birds or animals of any kind, and magazine shot guns, except when hunting large game, shall not contain more than three shells.

It is unlawful to kill game from an automobile or vehicle, or a boat propelled by mechanical power, or to use any bait, hay, grain or other food to entice game, except for fur bearers.

No party of more than five may hunt small game. Big game must be tagged in four hours, instead of six, as required by the old law.

The law relating to the transportation and marking of game has not been changed.

Deer and rabbits killed in another state may be sold for human consumption. All other wild game, except raccoons, may not be sold. The sale of game raised under a commercial propagating permit, when properly tagged, is lawful.

The dog training season now runs from Aug. 20 to the end of March, Sundays included. Raccoon dogs may be trained to midnight and rabbit dogs to 9 p. m.

The releasing of domestic cats is now unlawful. This law is intended to stop the dropping of cats along highways. The penalty for a person dropping a cat is $25.

Hunters found damaging property by breaking down fences or injuring livestock are subject to a fine of $25. Hunting while intoxicated is punishable by a $25 fine.

This has been declared one of the greatest years for inventions since the opening of the patent office. Few contraptions have been received with greater jubilation than the keyhole funnel patented by Ralph A. Ringseis of San Francisco. "The boys" returning from lodge meetings on dark nights, had often thought how nice it would be if they had funnels on their keyholes, but it remained for a genius like Mr. Ringseis to get to work on the invention.

Teachers Get Absence Leave

After Teaching Ten Years Can Get Year's Leave Of Absence

HARRISBURG, Aug. 0.—Dr. Lester K. Ade, superintendent of public instruction, stated today that the Sabbatical Leave law, approved on July 1, 1937, which provides for a leave of absence for teachers under certain conditions, does not carry with it blanket authorization for the granting of a leave of absence to all teachers but restricts eligibility to those who have taught in the public schools of this commonwealth for ten years or more.

Those who have taught for a period of at least ten years are entitled to receive their first sabbatical leave and at each subsequent period of seven years they are entitled to receive another sabbatical leave. The period of the leave of absence may be either one semester or one full school year at the option of the teacher. This law becomes effective September 1.

Mother And Daughter Are Still In Serious Condition At Hospital

New Castle hospital attendants this afternoon described the condition of Mrs. Jennie Vancouver, aged 33, and daughter Helen, aged 11, of 420 Galbreath avenue as still critical.

Mrs. Vancouver and daughter are suffering with serious head injuries they sustained early Monday morning when they were allegedly attacked with a hatchet by Daniel Vancouver, the woman's husband and child's father.

Chief of police yesterday preferred two separate charges against Vancouver. One charged him with felonious assault and battery with intent to kill his wife and the same charge was preferred against Vancouver for injuries to his daughter. The informations were made before Alderman Green.

Before being taken to the alderman's office and thence to the county jail, Vancouver recited what occurred prior to his rash act. He also told of fleeing in his underwear and bedroom slippers several miles distant through brush and across fields to Taylor township where he was caught by Trooper Knudsen.

The man's body was badly scratched by brush, according to the chief, and, owing to his alleged state of mind, the chief of police lost no time in swearing to informations and having him taken to the county jail where he will be watched for fear that he may attempt to harm himself.

Pilots License Won By Another New Castle Man

List Of New Castle's Licensed Airplane Pilots Steadily Increasing

At the regular government aeronautical examinations at Port Erie, Pa., airport Monday, Al Sroczynski of the Butler road passed all examinations and was awarded his private pilot license.

The local youth was accompanied to Erie by his instructor, Findley C. Wilson. Department of Commerce Inspector Russell A. Young examined Sroczynski and put him to the test of his flying ability. According to Wilson, the local man came through with flying colors, making attractive scores in all of the tests.

To pass this examination 50 hours of solo flying are required along with the following: Two precision spins, two turns, left and right; 720 degrees vertical power turns to left and right; a series of shallow and steep figure 8's; spirals, spot landings from various heights, emergency maneuvers, and a written examination on department of commerce rules and regulations and air traffic rules.

The trip to Erie was made in one hour flying time, and on the return trip the couple landed at the new Meadville airport for gasoline.

Announce Winners At Pottery Picnic

Winners of the various events at the picnic of the Shenango Pottery, held in Idora Park, Youngstown, O., on Saturday, Aug. 7, were announced today by the committee in charge of the picnic.

With few exceptions all of the employes were present at the picnic and at dinner time the executives of the plant and their families were guests of the employes.

A ball game was held between the married men and single men, with two winners announced. The single men claim they won by a score of 5 to 3 and the married men claim they won by a score of 23 to 2. There being no closed season on newspaper men, this article merely records the claims and makes no effort to settle the dispute.

The cash prize of $50 was won by Frank Borio, $25 by Joseph Ryan, $15 by Hamilton Farrar, $10 by Walter Brish. Race winners were Jack Sheridan, Albert Merelle, Bennie Perrotti, Jack Wilson, Dolores Mastren, Dorothy Fox, Betty Jane Hinebaugh, Eva Suzow, Paul Rishel, L. Nearly $37,000 Paid To Community Chest

Community Chest headquarters on North Mercer street reported this morning that $36,948 of the $49,799 pledged in the 1936 campaign had been paid in by subscribers. The amount remaining to be collected is $12,851.

Efforts to collect the remaining $12,851, officials said, will be organized at once. It is the hope of the organization that the smaller payments, as well as the larger, are sent in.

Payments this year have been far more prompt than in past years. The downtown collection office, open throughout the day, provides a convenient point for subscribers.

Tire Blow Out Causes Crash

Three young men narrowly escaped serious injuries early this morning when a car struck a truck on the New Castle-Ellwood road, near the Lawrence County Home.

According to Alex Benkosky, of 520 Electric street, one of the occupants of the car, a tire blew out, forcing the car to the left of the road and into an oncoming truck. Benkosky suffered lacerations of the forehead, cut on lip and had a tooth knocked out. William Hyler, Clifton Flats, suffered minor bruises. Benkosky stated that the car was driven by W. L. Graham, Ellwood City, R. F. D. No. 1. The young men were enroute to New Castle.

WASHINGTON AT A GLANCE

No Peace Ahead For Democrats

Party Harmony Unlikely Because Of Anti-New Deal Opposition

SOUTHERNERS BOLT ON WAGES

Central Press
Washington Bureau
602 Times-Herald Bldg.

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—The seventy-fifth congress has been drawing toward the end of its first session with none too salubrious an outlook for Democratic peace in the hereafter.

Approximately one-third of the Democratic senators are in a state of insurrection against the White House.

Cleavage in the ranks of Democratic representatives is not so accurately definable. The proportion of insurgents certainly is not so large as in the senate, but the number is considerable. Moreover, the malcontents are largely influential old-timers. These gentry think they have their respective home districts sewed up tight and are correspondingly disposed to be independent.

* * *

A LULL

Relations between the capitol and the executive mansion seemed somewhat more amicable for a week or two following Senate Leader Joseph T. Robinson's death, the selection of Senator Alben W. Barkley to succeed him and the president's defeat on the supreme court reorganization plan.

Senator Pat Harrison seemed to accept in good part his beating (on a one-vote margin) by Barkley, for his party's leadership in the congressional chamber.

Politicians began to wonder:

Were the conflicting Democratic factions at least semi-reconciled? They could scarcely believe it, but they watchfully waited.

* * *

HARRISON BOLTS

They did not have to wait long. Senator Harrison bolted the administration, along with other southern senators, on the wage-hour bill, although it was passed anyhow by a good majority. Harrison did it in no half-hearted fashion either. Pat can make as cutting a speech as any individual in the senate and he established a record, even for himself, on the wage-hour issue—against the administration.

The Mississippi senator is an out-and-out loss to the New Dealers, too. Statesmen like Senators Glass, Byrd, Bailey and George have been in revolt all along, but Pat has supported New Deal policies, although no one considered him in real sympathy with them. Now he also has jumped the reservation. Evidently his licking (skimpy as it was) by administrationists for the senate leadership rankles in his breast far more viciously than his pleasant smile at the time indicated.

* * *

AS "RAMPAGEOUS" AS EVER

Such solons as Glass, Byrd, Bailey and George are as rampageous as ever.

Senator "Cotton Ed" Smith of South Carolina, in debate, took the hide off the Rooseveltians for abandoning the two-thirds rule in Democratic national conventions, to the almost fatal disadvantage of the south, he asserted (and it did hamstring southern authority at these gatherings, unquesionably).

Vice President Garner likewise has his fingers crossed.

He wants to save the Democratic party and he doesn't exactly see how he can do it without saving the New Deal incidentally, but he distinctly is unwilling to do the latter.

* * *

TO CONTINUE

In short, the row that was raging at the time of Senator Robinson's death is as effervescent as ever it was.

A truce prevailed for a few days; it's over.

With congress' adjournment, the ruckus will spread out into the "provinces."

It will be resumed here when congress next meets. Probably it will be meaner in Washington then than at present.

Mistakes Brother For Prowler, Fires Fatal Shot In Home

Harrisville School Head Is Named At Saltsburg School

(Special To The News)

GROVE CITY, Aug. 10.—Prof. James S. Wilson of this city has accepted a position as supervising principal of the Saltsburg, Pa., public and high schools, and will assume his duties in September. For the past eight years he has held a similar position at Harrisville, near here.

Prof. Wilson is a graduate of Grove City high school and college and has taken advanced work at the University of Pittsburgh. While at Harrisville he handled the football and basketball coaching in addition to his administrative work, and made an enviable record. Since his youth he has resided here, and maintained his residence here while holding the Harrisville position.

BRIDE WHO DIDN'T SAY YES AT ALTAR MAY LOSE HUSBAND

(International News Service)

VIENNA—A bride, who did not say "Yes" at the altar may lose her husband as a result.

Michael Koves, a young peasant living near Graz is now seeking divorce on grounds that the priest, who performed the wedding ceremony, failed to get an answer to his question, whether the bride accepts Michael, as her husband.

Several witnesses who attended the wedding declared they had noticed the omission of the bride's "yes" but attributeed it to the shyness of the young girl.

The bride, Maria, refused to make any statement. Her husband sought the divorce after three weeks of married life.

Law experts declared that the omission of the decisive answer may render the marriage invalid.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS MEET ON WEDNESDAY

Eintracht Singers Prepare To Defend Music Fete Honors

At Salem, O., In September They Compete In Sangerbund Again

Members of the New Castle Eintracht Singing society and its Frohinn Ladies choir, composed of wives and daughters of the Eintracht singers, have commenced rehearsals for the biennial Transylvania-Saxon Sangerbund, which takes place September 5 and 6 in Salem, O.

The sangerbund is the two-day festival in which nearly 30 singing societies from a wide area compete for musical honors. The first day is always given over to competitive singing and the second to mass chorus singing for entertainment alone.

Eintracht's male chorus this year must defend its "wandering flag" laurels, the highest any competing society can win. The men took honors when they sang in Cleveland's Sangerbund two years ago. The flag is never a permanent possession and must be earned every two years.

Society officers said today special busses will be chartered to carry more than 80 persons from New Castle and back.

In the Cleveland competition in 1935 the Frosinn Ladies choir—the wives and daughters—won second prize honors. They received a loving cup.

The rehearsals are progressing at Eintracht's hall on Taylor street.

Kannenberg Named On State Committee

Baldwin H. Kannenburg, superintendent of the American Can Co. plant here, today was named by Governor George H. Earle as a member of the Pennsylvania Constitution commemoration committee which will arrange for state-wide celebration in September of the 150th anniversary of the adoption of the United States constitution.

BETSY ROSS DEFENDED

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA. — Fifty-five gray-haired members of the Philadelphia chapter, Sons of the American Revolution, have sprung to the defense of Betsy Ross as the maker of the first American flag—all arguments of debunking writers to the contrary notwithstanding.

In recent years there have been assertions that Betsy had nothing to do with the creation of Old Glory and that the national colors were not even made in the Betsy Ross House, a patriotic shrine here for years. In the future these "irreverent historians" will have the Sons of the American Revolution to deal with.

Annual Gathering Will Take Place At Akron, September 4 And 5

Members of Headquarters Company, 332nd Infantry, and others who were affiliated with this World War regiment of the 83rd Division, are planning to attend the 16th annual reunion of their outfit, which will take place in Akron, O., Saturday and Sunday, September 4 and 5.

Officers of the 332nd Infantry Association in charge of this year's reunion are: Oscar Little, president; Harry C. Shumaker, vice president; Charles S. Sauvain, treasurer; and F. W. Cowles, secretary. Reservations for the reunion are being addressed to Secretary Cowles, at 59 Casterton avenue, Akron, O.

The 332nd Infantry was the only American regiment to serve on the Italian front during the war, and was cited for conspicuous service on numerous occasions. Their shoulder insignia was the winged Lion of St. Mark.

Speed Trial For Slayer Of Girl

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Authorities Monday promised a speedy trial for Lawrence Marks, 49-year-old ex-convict who allegedly confessed that he strangled and attacked 8-year-old Paula Magagna in a Brooklyn tenement cellar a week ago Saturday.

Police said that in a signed statement Marks told how he lured the child into the cellar by asking her to show him the gas meters; how she was strangled with cord; and how her attacker used the child's play suit to erase possible fingerprints from the perambulator on which the body lay.

Marks, who told reporters "he knew he was going to the chair and might as well be dead anyway," was booked on a charge of murder.

Beer Taxes Has Raised Billion For Government

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.— Uncle Sam today prepared to pocket the 1,000,000,000th dollar from beer taxes.

Sometime today, the taxes collected from wort, malt and beer itself, will top $1,000,000,000 for the first time since relegalization of beer April 7, 1933.

This figuure does not include state and miscellaneous taxes, which over approximately the same period, have netted about $250,000,000.

"These billion dollars", an official of the United Brewers Industrial Foundation said, "collected in beer taxes of one sort or another, are practically net profit." He added: "The taxes are collected with little exertion on the treasury's part and very little cost for enforcement.

McGovern Watches Farr Training For Battle With Louis

Famous American Trainer Of Fighters Gets First Hand Information

Was Anxious To See How An Englishman Trains for Important Bout

By ARTIE McGOVERN
(Written Exclusively For International News Service.)

LON BRANCH, N. J., Aug. 10.—During the past 30 years I have watched all the boxing champions train, and I was anxious to see just how an English heavyweight champion prepared for a contest. Tom Evans, Tommy Farr's trainer, invited me to spend the day at the camp. I arrived at 6 a. m. After being stopped by several policemen, the only thing that saved me from being manhandled when I arrived at Farr's quarters was the fact that m. goo. friends, the former great English featherweight, Danny Frush, stuck his head out of a window and said I was O. K.

My arrival seemed to disturb everyone except Tommy Farr, who is another Joe Louis as far as sleeping is concerned. It took Evans, Frush and another camp assistant all of ten minutes to arouse the English heavyweight champ. The most effective means of waking him up was the cold water treatment—spunging his face with a cold towel.

Farr has the best system of stretching calisthenics I ever saw—or might I call them yawning exercises. "Oh, how he hates to get up in the morning!"

Goes For Jaunt.

He gets into his running costume which consists of heavy underwear, heavy shoes, pants and sweat shirt. To be sure that he is wide awake Evans, his trainer, put him through a series of abdominal exercises. They're all set for the road work or, as it happens to be in Farr's case, the track. There is a quarter mile track running outside Farrs door and at 6:40 he and his retinue start running. Evans sets the pace, and as he was quite a noted sprinter it is quite difficult for Farr to keep up with him.

It seems to me that it is a boring way to do road work—no country roads, just a flat track and Farr goes round and round and round! The average American fighter doing road work combines shadow boxing, side-stepping, feinting, ducking and jumping about while on the road, but Farr merely runs and walks. Sixteen laps around the track are completed, making a total of four miles.

In Fine Spirits.

Farr goes to his trainnig quarters—is covered up with blankets and allowed to perspire for about 20 minutes. He then has his shower and a good rub-down. After which, taking a leaf out of Gene Tunney's book, he drinks three glasses of milk. He is wide awake now and kidding, whistling and singing. He certainly is in much better spirits than he was when he was awakened.

At 10 o'clock breakfast is announced. Our friend, Tommy Farr, proves to be an expert trencherman. His first course is a large glass of orange juice. He then has a bowl of cold cereal with slicedd peaches, milk and cream. While he is waiting for the main course he has a piece of honeydew melon.

No Hobbies.

After breakfast he lolls around talking—bursting into song occasionally—he doesn't seem to have any hobbies.

At 1 o'clock he takes a rest—sometimes falling asleep. At 2 o'clock he prepares for his afternoon training session, which starts at 2:30. He trains about one hour, taking on four or five sparring partners, punches the light bag and the heavy bag, finishing up with calisthenics. He then has his shower, rub-down and spends about one hour with the boxing writers. At 5:30 he has his second meal which is a combination of lunch and dinner. He only takes two meals a day.

Eats Heartily.

His dinner consisted of tomato juice, three helpings of turkey, a large dish of green peas, large dish of mashed potatoes, several slices of rye bread, and butter, lettuce and tomato salad, a large dish of chopped pineapple which had a heavy covering of whipped cream. He then had two large pieces of cake and two cups of tea.

At 7 o'clock Farr's day of training and eating is completed and he attends the Casino at Long Branch, where he is a very well-known and very popular—he gives the girls a treat by dancing with them.

He gets back to his training quarters about 9:30 and enjoys reading what the critics say about Tommy Farr.

At 10:30 the lights are out and believe me it's been a tough 16½ hours for me, even if all I did was make observations.

Cubs-Pirates Start Series

Cubs Are Headed Toward Pennant In National League

BOSTON-GIANTS PLAYING TODAY

By LAWTON CARVER
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—With approximately one-third of the baseball season left on the calendar, some hope still is held by New York baseball fans for a "subway" world series next fall—but the farther the thing goes the more certain it seems that the Giants will be dethroned as National League champions.

With an edge of six games at this stage of the race, the Chicago Cubs figure to supplant the Giants and hence go into the fall classic against the Yankees, who now hold a 9½ game edge in the American League and virtually have sewed up the flag again.

However, one thing is in the Giants' favor insofar as the immediate future is concerned. They open here against the Boston Bees today, then meet the Philadelphia Phillies in a local series after which they will take on these same two clubs in their own parks.

Cubs Vs. Pirates

In that same period the Cubs play the tougher Pittsburgh Pirates and Cincinnati Reds and may lose some ground.

In any case the race seems to be confined now to the Cubs and Giants. The St. Louis Cardinals and Pirates have been shoved so far back that they scarcely figure any more.

Other series openers today—besides Bees and Giants, Pirates and Cubs—brought together the Brooklyn Dodgers and Phillies and the Reds and Cards.

Like the National League, the American also enjoyed an open date yesterday to permit the clubs to travel to the scene of new series, and today's feature in the American took the leading Yankees to Boston for some skirmishes with the Red Sox, who currently are holding down second place. However, there isn't much they can do considering that they are 9½ games off the pace.

The Chicago White Sox opened at Detroit today, Philadelphia Athletics at Washington and St. Louis Browns at Cleveland.

Pearsons Upset Nomad Team, 8-7

Miller, Deweys, And Ross Score Midget League Triumphs

In an exciting battle that lasted for 13 innings, the Pearson A. C. pulled one of the biggest surprises of the second half race by nosing out the strong Nomads, 8-7, Monday, in an impostant Midget league tussle.

Naples' hit in the thirteenth spelled defeat and threw the Nomads into a deadlock with the Millers for honors in the National league. The Millers trounced the Eagles 12-4. Dando had four out of four for the day. Skuba and Golis smashed homers. The Russos won an easy one when the Maitland team failed to show up for a scheduled contest.

In the American league, Hoods moved into the leadership when they won from the Marcellas and the Croton All-Stars lost to the Deweys, 12-10. The Ross A. C., aggregation trimmed the Rangers at Rosena groonds, 5-4. In the eighth, Angelo Cozza rapped a timely double with the bags loaded.

Seek Title Of City Golf Champ

Entries Close And Drawings Will Be Made Today For Championship Rounds

THREE SIXTEENS WILL BE IN FIELD

With the entries now closed in the city championship event, 48 of the city's better golfers will contest for the city title honors which were won by James A. Smith last year, but which will not be defended by him.

Smith, who is the son of Capt. V. Arthur Smith, manager and pro at Sylvan Heights course, is now located in Meadville and cannot spare the time to come back here and defend his title.

Walt Vogan was medalist in the 36-hole qualifying round run off during the past two weeks, his score being 150, or six over par, which is 144. Alex Dutkin was close on his heels with a 151 score. Next came Willie Grommes with a score of 152, who will be the one whom the contestants in the first sixteen will have to beat. Grommes' score of 32 for nine holes in the closing game of the New Castle golf league, reveals the fact that he is back in the form which he displayed several years ago when he was a strong contender for the city title.

The drawings in the first sixteen found three with a score of 159, and when the names were drawn out, Pete Dimico was thrown over into the second sixteen, Tobe Fenati and Dom Dimico finding themselves in the first sixteen. The pairings will be announced tomorrow.

Games Tonight In City League

Four Games On Schedule Tonight In City Baseball League

Four games will be played tonight in the City Baseball league (weather permitting). The games will start at 6 o'clock.

The West Pittsburg team will be up on the Glasser ball orchard to oppose the K. Pulaskis. Manager "Lefty" Maslyk announced that "Cab" Mrozek would do the hurling for the Oaklanders. He will be opposed by either Hill or Braky.

Indies At Ryantown

The Lawrence Indies with Balla or Carik up, will play at Ryantown and Manager Joe Samuels will rely on the veteran Rodenbaugh to trim the "Red Caps."

The South Side Board of Trade opposes the Colored Elks at the Rosena field. The opposing hurlers will be H. Gray for the Elks and probably Turco or Isaac for the Board of Trade.

The Sixth Ward Firemen with "Peck" Huston on the hill, will go to the E. & A. field to meet the fast Mahoning A. A. team. The Seventh ward team will use either Rainey or Forgione on the hill.

Colored Elks To Start On Tour

The Colored Elks baseball club of the City League, is planning a tour under the personal supervision of James Elliott, the booking manager. On August 29th, the Colored Elks will play in Richmond, Va.

Other stops on the tour will be made at Washington, D. C., Nashville, Tenn., Philadelphia and Louisville, Ky. Then the Elks will hurry back to Cleveland and Warren, Ohio for games.

The Elks feature such hard hitting stars as Moore, Crafton, Preston and the hard hitting Rowlands who hit one the other day about 450 feet for the longest home run ever seen around here. Dr. George Garnett will accompany the team on the trip. The Elks will play the Greenville, Pa. team in the near future, it was announced by Elliott.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Last night was K. O. Night at Hickey Park, Pittsburgh. Johnny Romero, Los Angeles, won by a technical knockout over Eddie Boyle, Cleveland, in the fourth round. Boyle was no match for Romero. They are light heavyweights. In the semi-final, Charley Burley, Pittsburgh, scored a technical kayo over Remo Fernandez, California, 147, in the eighth round. He had a bad cut on his cheek and did not come out for the eighth round. Al Grayber, referee, stopped the fight between Lloyd Clements at the end of the fourth round when Jack Monroe, Homestead, was being punished and could not defend himself.

Banging out a 67, five under par, Don Erickson, of Alhambra, Calif., led at the halfway mark Monday in the 36-hole qualifying trials for the national public links golf championship. He set a new course record for Harding Park.

Old Timers and the East Side Merchants will clash again August 19, according to Hank Stanley. He is now busy lining up the Old Timers. The game will be played on Lehigh field.

Jimmie McCormick, Howard Edwards, Adolf Lang, Johnny Bender, Bill Figuly and George Barrett have arrived home from Beverly Lake, near Delta, Ont., where they made a nice catch of fish. All of the bass and pike they brought back weighed five and six pounds. The fishing expedition was featured by Johnny "Scoop" Bender. It appears that Barrett had an extra large pike on his line and when he was about to land the pike it broke loose and Barrett started to moan his loss when Bender, standing in the other end of the boat with a net thrust it into the water and scooped up Barrett's pike.

CROTON MERCHANTS WIN

The Croton Merchants softball team handed the Croton Progressives a 5 to 2 upsetting at Castle field with Mike Isabella the winning hurler and Irvin Rubeis the losing heaver. Isabella allowed but one hit in pitching his victory. The winners had eight hits off of Rubeis. Willie Aven had the only hit allowed by the masterful pitching of Mike Isabella. The Merchants won the game in the fifth with a four-run attack.

James Features With Two Homers

B. Ostrosky Features On Mound, Fans Five, Allows Four Hits

East Side Merchants won from the Capitolas 8 to 1 in a Lawrence County Baseball league game on the Lehigh field yesterday. C. James featured with two homers which was the first time any Lawrence looper has made two home runs in one game this year. Todd was touched up for eight hits while B. Ostrosky allowed only four, in addition to fanning five. He also hit a triple.

Walsh Favors Joe Louis In Coming Battle

Fails To See Where Tommy Farr Has Much Chance With Brown Bomber

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

LONG BRANCH, N. J., Aug. 10.—It may be kept in mind that a lot of the old, flat foot ex-fighters, who come rolling in here of an afternoon to get a meal on the cuff and wind up with most of it on the cravat, arrive on the scene with a specific understanding. They recognize a moral compulsion to blather their brains away on behalf of Thomas George Paul Farr, the pride of Great Britain, the idea being to give the promotion a break.

If they don't, Thomas maybe won't even draw caricatures on the night of the 26th when he is to engage in a gripping encounter with Joe Louis for the world's heavyweight championship.

Yet—there isn't much doubt today that some pretty good people seem to be getting some pretty curious ideas about Farr. After eyeing him very narrowly, off and on, for some weeks, they give him a good chance and I certainly wish they were around now. Because upon thinking it over I'd like to ask them whether they mean a good chance to live.

Does Nice Weaving.

"He comes in with a weave," they say, "and anybody who does that to Louis will do things to him. He's got speed, when he wants to show it. He's got a good straight left. He's got——"

Probably it's only my boyish mistakes, but I can't help remembering that among other things he's got is a fricasseed visage. It looks like it was absently left under a tractor and I wonder, if he's really so good, how he got that cross country nose and the ear with the double-chin. That ear isn't just cauliflower. It couldn't be less than a tomato surprise.

Moreover, ringside eye-witnesses claim he really lost to Loughran, who's now so old he probably couldn't beat Nick Altrock, except with a club; also, the record book says that Farr was knocked down twice by Bob Olin, the greatest lobby fighter in history. Its like this: Robert hits the floor and everybody hits the lobby.

"Nevertheless," they come back at you around here, "Farr is going to surprise everybody—including Louis. You just won't listen to reason."

As a matter of fact, I remember the last time I wouldn't. That was the time I agreed to jump off the Metropolitan tower—without rubber heels—if Baer didn't beat Braddock. This time, I'll do better. It'll be Mount Everest—with sash-weights.

(International News Service)

HARDING PARK, San Francisco, Aug. 10—By tonight the field of 190 competitors in the 16th annual National public links championship will be whittled to 64 qualifiers for the match play which gets underway tomorrow.

Invading golfers from all parts of the country played the first 18 holes of the 36-hole qualifying test so well that scores of 77 or better must be dupulicated today to qualify for the match play.

Don Erickson, 25-year old gas company employe of Alhambra, Cal. shaved five strokes from par 72 to lead the field. His 67 for the first 18 holes of qualifying play established a new course competitive record. He scored six birdies and needed just 24 putts for the 18 holes. He tanked putts from all corners of the green, his longest successful putt being a 35-footer on the 18th.

Greene Is Good

In second place, only two strokes behind Erickson is Joe Greene, of Philadelphia, runner-up in the national public links tournament of 1930. Greene won the Philadelphia junior title in 1925 and 1935, turning pro for three months in 1933, recently regaining his amateur status.

Defending champion Pat Abbott, of Pasadena, Cal. was in third place with a sub-par 70. Grouped at 71 were Robert Abeles, Jr. Santa Monica, Cal., Paul Genung, Dayton, O., Van Hall, Long Beach Cal. There were 10 with 72 including Claude Rippy, the Washington, D. C. star who burned the course during practice rounds.

San Francisco and Sacramento were leading for the team championship. Each contingent of four men turned in totals of 296.

Other leaders in the team race for the Harding cup, emblematic of the National team championship were Santa Monica 297, Philadelphia 299, Honolulu 300, Buffalo, Toledo and Los Angeles 304 each.

Seattle the defending team championship, was eleventh with 309.

CASTLE HILLS GOLF

Two more unusual shots featured at the Castle Hills golf course. Paul Hunt shot an eagle two on the par four No. 5 hole, a 280-yard affair. He had a beautiful drive and sank his second shot with a No. 7 iron. Lew Cartwright barely missed an eagle two on the No. 3 par four hole, a 370-yard affair, his second shot with a spoon, barely stopped on the lip of the cup. As it was Cartwright had to be content with a birdie three, but would have liked very much to have had a two.

In the blind bogey event at the course, the winners were: Johnny Dudek, William "Lucky" Miles and Bob Mackie, all with 71 nets. The medalist for the tourney was Emil Grommes with a blazing 72. Right back of Grommes with a scorching 73 was Johnny Ferry.

Norman Bishara Trims Saks, 7-1

Local Hurler Shows Lots Of Stuff In Victory On Monday Night

Breezing them through in his typical style, Norman Bishara hurled the Nobils to a victory over the Saks, 7-1, Monday at Gaston park in a regular City Softball league tussle.

Bishara was carded for a shutout until the eighth when his opponents managed to put over their lone tally. The best the Saks could do was get three hits. John Teplica led the Nobs' attack with three bingles. The defeat eliminated the Saks from the second half race. The Nobs are the nearest rivals to the Rads. Wednesday's Rads-Nobs game has been postponed. To date the Nobils nave won 27 and lost 9.

WEAVERS STOP STROLLERS

At Rose Avenue field, the scrappy Seventh Ward Weavers cashed in with another victory, this time defeating the East Side Strollers 4-3. Wilson was in rare form, permitting but four hits. Carson, on the mound for the Strollers was also in superb condition, allowing the Seventh Warders but two bingles. He walked five men. Four Strollers miscues paved the way for the Weavers' victory. S Russo and L. Turk were credited with the only Weaver safeties. Weyman was outstanding for the East Siders, getting two hits, one being a homer.

Last Friday night, at Gaston park the Weavers scored an unexpected victory over the Nobils, 11-4. The game was called in the first of the sixth on account of darkness. J. Weaver pitched for the Weavers and Isabelle and Pascarella teamed up for the Nobs.

Dodgers Buy Ben Cantwell

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—Brooklyn's wobbly pitching staff today was bolstered by acquisition of the veteran Ben Cantwell, bought from the New York Giants.

Obtained by the Giants from the Jersey City International League club three weeks ago, Cantwell pitched only four innings for them.

Greyhound May Lower Record

Famous Trotting Horse Will Attempt To Lower World's Record Today

(International News Service)

GOSHEN, N. Y., Aug. 10.—Greyhound, one of the most famous trotting horses of all time, was to attempt to lower the world's trotting record of 1:56¾ here today as the feature event of the Grand Circuit meet.

The record, which has stood since 1922, was established by Peter Manning at Lexington, Ky., with Tom Murphy handling the lines.

Greyhound will be paced by a thoroughbred runner, and will be driven by Sep Palin, veteran trainer.

Giovanni Maiani, Italian owner of Muscletone, European trotting champion, was on hand today to watch Greyhound's attempt. He arrived from Milan, Italy, yesterday. The two horses may meet in a match race later.

In yesterday's opening meet, the Widower, driven by Vic Fleming, won a straight-heat victory in the Langhorne stake for two-year-olds and captured the $1,000 purse. Chief Counsel, the favorite, come in second, defeated for the first time this season.

Several Hurt In Auto Accident

Several persons were injured slightly when an automobile was reported to have upset on Route 422 west of New Castle airport at 5 p. m. Monday. Pennsylvania motor police today said they had no report of the accident.

According to the report the car was travelling toward New Bedford enroute to Detroit. Going around a curve the auto upset. All occupants of the car were cut slightly by flying glass.

The names of the persons were not obtained. The auto was righted but was able to be operated and the party continued enroute west.

Electric Service Not Interrupted In New Castle

Although there was a heavy rainfall last night no serious interruption to electric service occurred in the city, according to Pennsylvania Power Company officials.

A transformer was burned out at Highland Heights and a primary line was affected along the Harlansburg road which caused an interruption to service.

About 100 transformer fuses were burned out in this district, it was stated.

The company had a crew of men at work during the storm period and afterward restoring service where it was interrupted.

FROM ME TO YOU

By MESEEALL.

Here is something else again . . . about the 50,000 dollars . . . it just came through the mail . . . this person says . . . "Will stop long enough in making my first Fifty Thousand dollars to answer your query. On consideration of this, my first move would be to make application to the proper court to ascertain the sanity of the person giving the amount, in that manner I would be sure of knowing that it was mine. If the person was judged sane, then I would begin to worry" . . . that is the one way to accept the proposition . . . this is from Elsie.

* * *

Here is still another way . . . this sounds very good to the column . . . it's from a young lady . . . she says she would pay for her new car and then come down and show the author of this column a heck of a good time . . . oh me . . . I can't get over it . . . some people are so thoughtful.

* * *

Some folks on the East Side would like to know why Tom Clements goes home from work, from the East Side and then within an hour or so returns to the East Side . . . who is she Tom? . . . you look pretty snappy these evenings.

* * *

Might we suggest that if 1065-J would be more exact in names . . . something might be made of it . . . we are waiting.

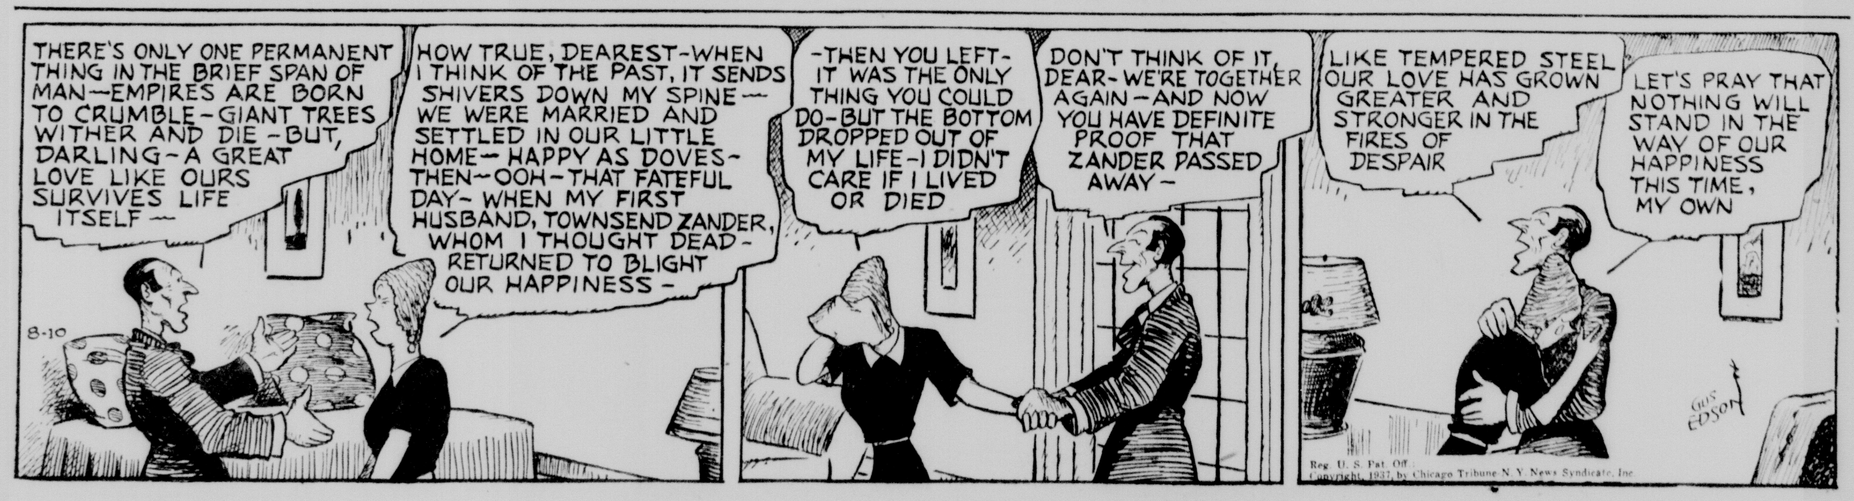

* * *

Sometime ago we published a list of eligible young men in New Castle . . . from time to time that list has been reduced . . . again today we reduce again . . . Ben Finkel . . . engaged to Miss Doris Shenkan . . . the party took place last Friday . . . is our face red.

* * *

Don't forget that tomorrow will be Dollar Day . . . all New Castle is invited to participate in this great event . . . the merchants are planning on making this an old fashioned Dollar Day . . . Come early and stay late . . . let's eat in town tomorrow and have a real day.

Stock Market Steadier Today

Narrow Range In Trading For Pivotal Issues This Morning

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—The stock market steadied today after slipping somewhat at the start under the lead of steels, yesterday's feature on the upside.

Pivotal issues settled into a narrow range in the wake of the modest recovery, ruling small fractions to either side of previous closing levels in continued quiet trading. Plus signs were slightly in the majority.

Fluctuations in steels, motors and rails were somewhat typical of the general list. U. S. Steel and Bethlehem wiped out initial losses of more than a point, General Motors converted an opening fractional decline into an equal-sized gain, while N. Y. Central regained a large fractional loss.

Among the issues to chalk up fair-sized advances were Allied Chemical up 2, Western Union more than a point, U. S. Smelting slightly more and Chrysler about a point. Loew's in the amusements and Owens-Illinois Glass both climbed into new high ground for the year.

On the other side of the ledger were Deere, off close to two points, Atchison and American Can, each down a point, and Holly Sugar about as much.
